REFLECTION ON THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY

IN ORDINARY TIME: The readings for the 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time focus on mercy and forgiveness. In the first reading we are told we must forgive each other for "wrath and anger are hateful things". The psalm reminds us that God shows us mercy. The second reading tells us to live for Christ instead of ourselves. In the Gospel Jesus tells parables about mercy and tells Peter that we must forgive "seventy times seven" times. In the parable the king's forgiveness is like God's forgiveness, and it transforms us, helping us to be as forgiving as God.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION begins today. If you have any questions please contact our new D.R.E., Zenda Vargas at (505)455-2267 or email her at nsdgzvargas@gmail.com. Office hours are from 10-4 p.m. She is also available during office hours. Let us pray for our Religious Education Program, Staff and Students.

SAINT MATTHEW, APOSTLE AND EVANGELIST

Feast Day: Friday September 21
Matthew the Apostle is named in the New Testament as one of the twelve apostles of Jesus. According to Christian traditions, he was also one of four Evangelists as author of the Gospel of Matthew. The New Testament records that as a disciple, he followed Jesus. Later Church fathers such as Irenaeus and Clement claim that Matthew preached the Gospel in many countries.

FORGIVE

FORGIVEN

Matthew 18:21-35

FAMILY CONNECTION

Children learn to trust God's mercy and forgiveness when they experience forgiveness from those closest to them. We hope that we model God's love and forgiveness within our family life. Today's Gospel reminds us that forgiveness is measured by its quality more than its quantity. Invite your family to consider some recent times when family members sought the forgiveness of another. Ask if there were any statements made that put conditions on our forgiveness such as "I will play this game with you if you apologize for knocking over my blocks" or "I will accept your apology after you clean up your room." Do we sometimes "keep count" or put conditions on our forgiveness of one another? This is something we may be doing without realizing it. The number of times that we forgive one another is less important than the depth of our forgiveness. We must forgive from the heart.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Sirach 27:30-28:9 Those who seek God's mercy must be merciful toward others.

Responsorial Psalm: 103:1-4,9-12 A song of praise to God who is kind and merciful.

Second Reading: Romans 14:7-9 We belong to the Lord.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 18:21-35 Jesus teaches that we must forgive one another as God has forgiven us.

Today's Gospel reading directly follows last week's Gospel in which Jesus taught the disciples how to handle disputes and conflict with the Christian community. Peter asks Jesus how many times one ought to extend forgiveness to another. Peter proposes a reasonable number of times, perhaps seven. Jesus replies by extending Peter's proposal by an enormous amount; not just seven times should one forgive, but 77 times. The parable of the unforgiving servant is Jesus' elaboration of his initial reply to Peter. We come to understand the depths of God's mercy toward us and the results of our acceptance of God's forgiveness. The king decides to settle accounts with his servants. We are told that one servant in particular owes the king an enormous sum of money. Despite the promise of the servant, it is unlikely that he would ever be able to repay the debt that he owes. The king is moved by the humility of the pleading servant and mercifully forgives the debt. Rather than displaying gratitude for this forgiveness, the servant confronts a fellow servant who owes him a small debt a pittance when compared with the amount that was owed to the king. The unmerciful servant refuses the pleas of his fellow servant and sends the servant to prison. A few other servants tell the merciful king about the actions of the unforgiving servant. The king punishes the servant because he refused to show the kind of mercy he had himself received from the king. Jesus concludes by indicating that this is how it will be with God and those who refuse to forgive one another. Jesus' point is that forgiveness is not about quantity. It's about the number of times we extend forgiveness to another. The lesson is clear: If we hoard God's mercy while showing no mercy to others, we risk forfeiting the effects of God's mercy in our lives.
