SAINT JOHN XXIII, POPE
Feast Day: Wednesday October 11
 Pope John XXIII was head of the Catholic Church and sovereign of the Vatican City from October 28, 1958 until his death in June 1963. In a surprise announcement in 1959, Pope John called all the world's Catholic bishops and cardinals to Rome to discuss modernizing the Church. The discussions led to major changes in Catholicism, from allowing priests to say Mass in languages other than Latin, to the recognition of other faiths.

CHILD PROTECTION TRAINING:

REFLECTION ON THE TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

Today's readings focus on discipleship and our choice to follow Jesus or not. In the first reading Israel is warned that they must be faithful. The psalm begs God to return to the vineyard and care for it. The second reading encourages Christians to continue along the path that Jesus has shown us. The gospel tells the parable of the tenants, who rejected the landowner. The owner's decision to send his son underscores the theme of God's ultimate outreach. Sending His Son, Jesus, reflects God's desire to restore the relationship with humanity through a new covenant.

RESPECT FOR LIFE begins today, which kicks off Respect Life Month. We consider more deeply why every human life is valuable and reflect on how to build a culture that protects life from conception to natural death. Join in the Respect Life Novena October 13-21 by going to respectlife.org and entering your email address next to "Respect Life Novena".

In an ideal household, family members know the rules and follow them consistently. Even the most conscientious among us, however, sometimes needs to be reminded of the rules and their importance. How we respond to such correction reveals our true character. In today's Gospel Jesus exposes the religious leaders for their failure to heed God's messengers. It is an opportunity for us to consider how we respond to those who are God's messengers today, calling us to correct our ways and return to the way of the Lord. As you gather as a family, talk about some of the most important rules of your household. Consider how consistently family members follow these rules. How are family members reminded when rules are not being followed? How do they respond? How do we respond to God's messengers today? Pray together as a family that you will heed God's messengers and follow God's ways.

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 5:1-7 The Lord compares the house of Israel to a vineyard.

Responsorial Psalm: 80:9,12-16,19-20 The Lord protects his vineyard, the house of Israel.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:6-9 Paul encourages the Philippians to stay faithful to the teaching they received from him.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 21:33-43 Jesus tells the parable about the wicked tenants.

Today's Gospel follows directly after last Sunday's Gospel in which Jesus was questioned by Jewish religious leaders about the source of his teaching authority. After refusing to answer their questions, Jesus tells the parable of the two sons and then criticizes the priests and elders for their lack of belief in John the Baptist. Jesus once again speaks to the priests and elders with a parable. In this parable, the landowner leases his vineyard to tenants and sends his servants to collect the portion of the harvest that the tenants owe to him. Several times the servants are sent to collect payment, and each time they are beaten and killed by the tenants. Finally, the landowner sends his son to collect his rent. The tenants, believing that they will inherit the vineyard if the landowner dies without an heir, plot together and kill the landowner's son. After telling the parable, Jesus questions the chief priests and elders about what the landowner will do to the wicked tenants. They all agree that the landowner will kill the wicked tenants and give the land to new tenants who will pay the rent. Jesus is clearly drawing upon Isaiah 5:1-7, which is today's first reading and one that the priests and elders would have known well. Jesus doesn't, therefore, have to explain the symbolism of the parable; the Pharisees would have understood that the vineyard represented Israel, the landowner represented God, the servants represented the prophets, and the bad tenants represented the religious leaders. Yet Jesus nonetheless explains the meaning of the parable for his audience: the Kingdom of God will be taken from the unbelieving and given to the faithful.
