REFLECTION ON THE TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY

IN ORDINARY TIME: Today's readings tell of the abundance of the Kingdom of God. In the first reading we hear of the wonders of the Mountain of the Lord. The psalm tells of how God will care for us as a shepherd cares for his sheep. The second reading speaks of how God provides for us in abundance. In the Gospel Jesus compares the Kingdom of Heaven to a Lavish wedding banquet. Gratitude can be one of the most fruitful forms of prayer. When we specifically notice things to be grateful for, we become aware of and acknowledge God's constant presence in our lives.

RESPECT FOR LIFE MONTH continues through October.

We consider more deeply why every human life is valuable and reflect on how to build a culture that protects life from conception to natural death. Join in the Respect Life Novena October 13-21 by going to respectlife.org and entering your email address next to "Respect Life Novena".

SAINT LUKE EVANGELIST

Feast Day: Wednesday October 18

Luke the Evangelist is one of the four Evangelists, the four traditionally ascribed authors of the canonical Gospels. He was the authorship of both the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles. Christians have regarded him as a saint. The Catholic Church and other major denominations venerate him as Saint Luke the Evangelist and as a Patron Saint of artists, physicians, bachelors, surgeons, students and butchers.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Today's Gospel reminds us that God invites all of us to his kingdom. How do we respond to this invitation? In the theological terms, God has granted us free will to accept or reject salvation. The parable of the wedding feast reminds us that God desires our wholehearted acceptance of his invitation to salvation. As you gather as a family, discuss what you consider appropriate attire for various occasions. For example, if your family were invited to a neighbor's barbecue, what would you wear? If you were planning to attend the symphony, what might you wear? If invited to an evening wedding, what might you wear? Discuss how our preparations for an event and our choice of attire indicates the importance and value we place on the occasion. In today's Gospel Jesus uses this metaphor to talk about the kingdom of heaven. Pray that you will respond wholeheartedly to God's invitation.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-10a The Lord will provide richly for his people.

Responsorial Psalm: 23:1-6 The Lord is our shepherd.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:12-14,19-20 Paul tells the Philippians that God provides whatever he needs.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 21:1-14 Jesus compares the kingdom of heaven to a wedding feast.

Immediately after criticizing the religious leaders through the parable of the tenants in Last Sunday's Gospel. Jesus proceeded to tell another parable, again directed at the religious leaders. We hear this parable in today's Gospel. In the Parable of the wedding feast, Jesus offers an image of the kingdom of heaven using the symbol of a wedding banquet. In today's first reading from the prophet Isaiah and in today's psalm, the Lord's goodness is evident in the symbol of a feast of good food and wine. Jesus' listeners would have been familiar with the image of a wedding feast as a symbol for God's salvation. They would consider themselves to be the invited guests. Keeping this in mind helps us to understand the critique Jesus makes with this parable. The context for this parable is the growing tension between Jesus and the Jewish religious leaders in Jerusalem. This has been the case for the past two Sundays and will continue to be true for the next several weeks. The parable Jesus tells is straightforward. The king dispatches his servants to invite the guests to the wedding feast that he is planning for his son. The listeners would have been surprised to learn that the first guests refused the invitation. Who would refuse the king's invitation? A second dispatch of servants follows. Again to the listeners' great surprise, some guests ignore the invitation. Some of the invited guests even go so far as to mistreat and kill the servants. The king invokes his retribution against these murderers by destroying them and burning their city. Jesus' message in the parable cautions against exclusive beliefs about the kingdom of heaven. The parable also teaches about humility. To accept the invitation is also to accept its obligations. God wants our full conversion in complete acceptance of his mercy.
