SAINT ANTHONY MARY CLARET, BISHOP

His life is full of variety. This 19th century saint was a missionary, religious founder, organizer of the lay apostolate, social reformer, queen's chaplain, writer and publisher, Archbishop, target of persecution, and a promoter of devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. To help the faithful he printed prayer books and catechisms and distributed them for free during his missions.

REFLECTION ON THE TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

Today's readings for the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time speak allegiance and responsibility. From the first reading we understand that we must give our whole selves to God. The psalm echo's this with "Give the Lord glory and honor." The second reading speaks of how we are called and chosen to do the work of Christ. And in the Gospel. Jesus explains that we must give to Caesar what belongs to Cesar and to God what belongs to God. Thus we learn to give our time and gifts back to God. When we are faced with choices this week think about whether your decisions will honor God.

RESPECT FOR LIFE MONTH continues through October.

We consider more deeply why every human life is valuable and reflect on how to build a culture that protects life from conception to natural death. As Catholics we are called to embrace, proclaim, and defend life. Every life is precious and must be loved and protected from harm.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Payment of taxes is unlikely to be a disputed issue in your family. Yet families can still learn something from this Gospel reading. Jesus' answer to the Herodians and Pharisees redirects their question to focus on the issue of greatest importance: loving and honoring God. Taking this perspective can help us make good judgments about the competing issues of importance in our lives. In today's Gospel Jesus reminds us of the necessity of giving things their proper importance. The Herodians and Pharisees were giving too much importance to the issue of the payment of taxes. Jesus reminds them that loving and honoring God is of greater importance. In family life we do many important things, but we remember that God is of the greatest importance in our lives. Pray together that your family will learn to keep things in proper perspective, remembering to keep God first in your lives. Pray together.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 45:1,4-6 The Lord chooses Cyrus to subdue the nations for the sake of Israel.

Responsorial Psalm: 96:1,3-10 Sing praise to the Lord.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b Paul greets the Thessalonians, recalling the Gospel they received.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 22:15-21 The Pharisees send their disciples to test Jesus with a question about taxes.

In today's Gospel Jesus and the religious leaders in Jerusalem continue their tense exchange of questions and challenges. At this point the disciples of the Pharisees, together with the Herodians, try to entrap Jesus by their question about the payment of taxes. Matthew sets up an unusual partnership between the Pharisees and the Herodians. The Herodians were supporters of Herod Antipas, a Jewish political leader who collaborated with the Romans. Such collaboration would have required a compromised observance of the Mosaic Law. The Pharisees, on the other hand, taught scrupulous observance of the Mosaic Law and opposed Roman occupation. Herodians favored the payment of taxes; the Pharisees opposed it. The Herodians and the Pharisees approach Jesus, asking that he take sides in their dispute. If Jesus answers with the Pharisees, he shows himself to be an enemy of Rome. If he answers with the Herodians, he offends popular Jewish religious sensibilities. Jesus' response to this attempt to trap him exposes the guile of his questioners. From his first words to them, Jesus shows that he is very much aware of what they are trying to do. He asks to see a Roman coin, which is readily provided to him. It may have come from the hand of a Herodian, but the Pharisees show themselves to be quite willing to accept this compromise. Jesus has already exposed the Pharisees as hypocrites. Jesus takes his response one step further. He asks that his questioners examine the coin. Agreeing that it is Caesar's image on the coin, Jesus tells them that it must belong to Caesar. Avoiding the question of lawfulness altogether, Jesus answers their question with simple logic. Then, going further still, Jesus tells them that their obligation is to pay to God that which belongs to God.
