REFLECTION ON THE THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

The readings for the 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time are a call to humility and holiness. The first reading demands that we listen to God and love one another. The psalm reminds us to find our peace and rest in God. The second reading tells us that we work to proclaim the Good News. In the Gospel, Jesus calls out those who lay heavy laws on others but do not practice what they preach. Jesus is warning us not to not think of ourselves as being better than other people. We have to be careful not to say one thing and then do the very opposite.

MONTH OF NOVEMBER all your loved ones will be prayed over at each Mass. Enter the names of your loved ones on the All Souls Envelope. You may also bring your loved ones pictures to the Parish Office so that we can place them on the Altar. For those who have lost a loved one this past year: At the end of Nov., pick up your Memory Candle at the Office.

SAINT LEO THE GREAT, POPE AND DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
Feast Day: November 10

Saint Leo the Great is known as one of the best administrative Popes of the ancient Church. His growth to sainthood has its basis in the spiritual depth, with which he approached the pastoral care of his people, which was the fourth focus of his work. He is known for his spiritually profound sermons. He was very well versed in Scripture. One of his sermons is used in the Office of Readings on Christmas.

FAMILY CONNECTION

“Do as I say, not as I do.” How many of us have been tempted to say this to our children? In today’s Gospel we hear a resounding reply from Jesus, “Practice what you preach.” Those who know us best, our family and especially our children, can identify the inconsistencies between what we want to teach and the example that we give. The challenge for all of us, especially for those of us who are parents, is to model with consistency the faith and the Christian way of life we wish to teach our children. As you gather as a family, talk about what it means to practice what you preach. Identify some examples of people you know who practice what they preach. What do you admire about them? In today’s Gospel, we hear Jesus talk about the importance of acting in ways that are consistent with our faith. Choose one action to take that will show your faith in action.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Malachi 1:14b-2:2b,8-10 Through the prophet Malachi, God judges the priests of Israel and calls them to be more faithful to the Covenant.

Responsorial Psalm: 131:1-3 We find peace in the Lord.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9,13 Paul gives thanks to God for the way in which the Thessalonians received the word of God.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 23:1-12 Jesus warns against following the example of the scribes and the Pharisees and teaches that those who would be great must be servants. Today’s Gospel continues to elaborate on the tension between Jesus and the scribes and Pharisees. Our Lectionary sequence at this point, however, is not quite a continuous reading of Matthew. In between last week’s reading from Matthew and this week’s, we find Jesus’ question to the Pharisees about the Messiah being “David’s son.” Having concluded a series of dialogues with the Pharisees and other religious leaders. Jesus now directs his words to the crowds, warning them not to follow the example of the scribes and Pharisees. The scribes and Pharisees were teachers of the Mosaic Law. They were entrusted with its interpretation and, thus were influential in determining Jewish practice. In order to appreciate the conflict that is evident in the passage, we must understand that Jesus was basing his teachings on the same laws and traditions available to the Pharisees. Both were interpreting the Law of Moses in order to better adapt it to contemporary Jewish life. The differences between their teachings, therefore, are often highlighted and amplified by Matthew. This part of Matthew’s Gospel reflects aspects of the conflict between his Christian community and Pharisaic Judaism. Matthew’s Church is thought to have included many Jewish Christians who may not have believed that a break with the synagogue was necessary to be a follower of Jesus. Jesus tells the crowd that it is correct to do and observe what the scribes and Pharisees teach; it is their example that is to be avoided, namely, their love of being honored and exalted. Hence, the Gospel reflects the tension of an active internal debate within the early Church.
