SAINT MARGARET OF SCOTLAND
Feast Day: Thursday November 16

St. Margaret was canonized for her concern with the ministry to the poor, the orphaned, the widowed, and the sick. She founded churches, monasteries and pilgrimages. The miracle associated with St. Margaret was the preservation of her Gospel Book which had fallen into a river, and her shrine at Dunfermline was the scene of several miracles of healing. She spent her life promoting devotion to the Sacred Heart because she knew how powerful it sets our own hearts on fire with love for our Lord.

REFLECTION ON THE THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

The readings for the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time remind us to always be alert and ready. The first reading speaks of seeking wisdom and being ready for her at dawn. The psalm reminds that union with God is our truest desire. The second reading tells us that death is not the end and that we will rise in Christ Jesus. In the gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the ten virgins, five who were ready and wise when their master arrived and five who were not ready and were foolish. Jesus is asking us to be prepared and ready so that we will be able to enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

MONTH OF NOVEMBER all your loved ones will be prayed over at each Mass. Enter the names of your loved ones on the All Souls Envelope. You may also bring your loved ones pictures to the Parish Office so that we can place them on the Altar. For those who have lost a loved one this past year: At the end of Nov., pick up your Memory Candle at the Office.

FAMILY CONNECTION

In the daily activities of family life, we can easily find excuses for not attending to our spiritual lives. If not given top priority, prayer and reading Scripture risk becoming occasional activities rather than daily practices. Jesus reminds us that if we fail to give our spiritual life priority, we will find ourselves unprepared to receive Jesus. Prayer and spiritual practice keeps us ready to receive Jesus. As a family talk about some of the things our faith calls us to do every day and every week to keep God first in our lives. Talk about what might happen if we don't do these things regularly. Explain to your family that Jesus taught us that it is important to keep ourselves ready to receive him when he comes again. Tell them to listen as you read the parable that Jesus tells in the Gospel. Talk about why Jesus says that it is so important to remain ready to receive the Kingdom of Heaven.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Wisdom 6:12-16 Wisdom will come to those who seek it.

Responsorial Psalm: 63:2,3-4,6,7-8 Our souls are thirsting for God.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 God will raise all those who have died.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 25:1-13 Jesus tells the parable of the wise and foolish virgins, teaching his disciples the importance of being prepared to receive the Kingdom of Heaven.

In this week's Gospel, Jesus talks about what it means to be prepared to receive the Kingdom of Heaven. This week's reading follows a series of warnings and predictions by Jesus about the coming of the Son of man. Jesus wants his disciples to understand that the exact day and time cannot be predicted. He teaches the disciples that they must remain vigilant so that they will not be caught unprepared. When thinking about the parable of the wise and foolish virgins, it is important to consider the first-century wedding traditions of Palestine. Scholars tell us that it was the custom of the day for young maidens, friends and family members of the bride to meet the bridegroom when he came to bring his bride to her new home. As with many of Jesus' parables, several levels of interpretation are possible. In last week's Gospel, we heard Jesus warn against following the example of the Pharisees and scribes. If read in the context of early Christianity's struggle to define itself against Pharisaic Judaism, this parable is a continuing critique of Judaism. It suggests that the Jewish leaders were like the foolish virgins, unprepared to meet Jesus, the bridegroom of Israel. In the chapter preceding this parable, however, Jesus warns about the destruction of Jerusalem, the tribulation of the end times, and the coming of the Son of Man. When read in this context, today's parable is a warning to the Christian community to remain vigilant and prepared to receive Jesus, the Son of Man who will return at the end of time. This interpretation is supported by the reference to the delay of the bridegroom. Are you ready to receive Jesus?
