THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD:
February 2, Jesus' presentation in the Temple reflects how he fulfills the Old Covenant. The Old Testament law, reveals that a sacrifice had to be offered in the Temple when a child was consecrated to the Lord. Mary & Joseph honor this tradition. Simeon, had been told by the Lord he would meet the Messiah before his death. When Jesus comes to the Temple, we see the fulfillment of this prophecy.

REFLECTION OF THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN

ORDINARY TIME: The readings for the 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time invite us to recognize Jesus and grant him authority in our lives. In the first reading, Moses foretells the coming of a mighty prophet. The Gospel tells how the people were amazed by the way Jesus taught with authority. The readings encompass several themes that are central to Christian theology and spiritual life. The Gospel vividly demonstrates Jesus' divine authority, in teaching and his power over unclean spirits. His authority amazes the people, revealing Him as a figure of divine power and wisdom.

FAMILY CONNECTION

The people who heard Jesus teach and saw him heal in today's Gospel were said to have been astonished and amazed by the authority of his teaching. So compelling were Jesus' words and actions that the news about him could not be contained; it spread quickly throughout all of Galilee. Two thousand years later, the news about Jesus continues to spread. We are called to share the Good News of Jesus with others in our words and in our deeds. Gather as a family and try to name some amazing events, or people. In the Gospel we hear that the people were astonished by their experience of Jesus. People should see in our lives the power and authority of God at work. Can you name any modern examples of people in whom you have seen God at Work?

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20 Moses tells the people that God will raise up for them a new prophet.

Responsorial Psalm: 95:1-2,6-7,7-9 A song of praise to the Lord.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35 Paul expresses his concern that those who are married are more likely to face the distractions of earthly life than those who are celibate.

Gospel Reading: Mark 1:21-28 Jesus heals a man with an unclean spirit and his fame spreads throughout Galilee. Today's Gospel continues our reading from Mark and describes what some believe was likely to have been a typical day in Jesus' ministry. Jesus and the disciples that chose to follow him in last week's Gospel arrive at Capernaum, a small village on the Sea of Galilee. Jesus teaches in the synagogue on the Sabbath. Mark reports that the people respond to Jesus' teaching with astonishment, noting Jesus' authority and contrasting it with the scribes'. Early in Mark's Gospel we already find evidence of the tension that will manifest itself in Jerusalem. After Jesus' preaching, an even more astonishing thing happens. A man possessed with an unclean spirit calls out to Jesus. As we see in this example and throughout Mark's Gospel, the spirits and demons seem to know Jesus and are often fearful of him. In fact, they seem to understand Jesus' identity better than his disciples. As we will read again and again in Mark's Gospel, Jesus orders the spirit to be quiet and drives the unclean spirit out of the man. Jesus' ability to heal those possessed by demons is an indication of his power over evil. In the prescientific age of Jesus' time, all illnesses were understood to be manifestations of evil and sinfulness. Our modern understanding of illness is very different. Possession by unclean spirits may have been a way to describe what we might call mental illness today. It may have even been a way of describing certain kinds of physical conditions. There is evidence that there were many kinds of exorcists and healers in first-century Palestine. Jesus appeared to be like these healers, but he heals with unique authority and connects his healing activities with the words of preaching.
