SAINT JEROME EMILIANI:
February 8, On this day we celebrate the Life of St. Jerome, a true beacon of kindness and generosity. He dedicated himself to helping the less fortunate, including the poor, sick and orphaned children. His selfless acts of love and compassion continue to shine a light on what it truly means to make a difference in the world. Lets strive to follow in his footsteps and spread joy and hope to all those in need.

ABUSE AWARENESS TRAINING FOR ADULTS:

Attention all members of various organizations that serve in the church. If you are 18 and older you are required to take the online course Abuse Awareness Training: Creating a Safe Environment for Our Children Workshop, sponsored by the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. REFLECTION OF THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: The readings for the 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time cause us to reflect on Jesus’ power to heal us, both physically and spiritually. In the first reading, Job laments that he is experiencing so much misery and despair. The psalm reminds us to “Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.” The Gospel tells how Jesus cured Peter’s mother in law, freed those possessed by demons, and preached in the area. It offers us a rich insight into Christian life, revealing the balance between personal spirituality and communal engagement between human struggle and grace.

Reminder: PLEASE COME TO THE PARISH OFFICE TO RECEIVE YOUR loved ones pictures that were placed at the Altar for the month of November. Also, to those families who lost a loved one this past year and had their Funeral Services at this Parish please come to pick up your beautiful Memory Candle that was at the Altar for the month of November.

We know from last week's Gospel that Jesus gathered and prayed with the community in the synagogue. Today we learn that Jesus also took the time to pray alone. Following the example of Jesus, we also pray together with our community, and we take the time to pray alone. Our children observe our prayer with others. We might want to take the opportunity to talk with them about our private prayer, however, so that through our example, they may learn to make private prayer an important part of their daily lives. Gather as a family and talk about ways in which your family prays together. Invite each member of the family to talk about his or her private prayer. When do you pray? How do you pray? What do you pray for?

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. Parishioners are asked to include first name, last name, envelope number, and your mailing address on any envelope that is not provided by the Parish. Thank you for your continued support.

UNLESS YOU ARE A SCHEDULED MINISTER FOR THE WEEKEND, Father Frank has asked that everyone stay out of the Sacristy. This is to protect Father, Monsignor and the Deacons or Ministers that are scheduled to be present in the Sacristy before or after Mass.

YOU MUST WEAR A MASK AT ALL TIMES If you are serving at the Altar, (Deacon, Acolyte, Lector, Cantor, EM, or any Server) The ASF has given the Parish Priest the discretion to mandate their own COVID-19 Policies.

BLESSED SACRAMENT ADORATION March 1st

Please come and spend one hour with Jesus! My sweetest Joy is to be in the presence of Jesus in the Holy Sacrament. I beg that when obliged to withdraw in body, I may leave my heart before the holy Sacrament. How I would miss out Lord, if He were to be away from me by His Presence in the Sacrament!

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Job 7:1-4,6-7 Job laments his sufferings and his life.

Responsorial Psalm: 147:1-6 A song of praise for the Lord's goodness to the lowly.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 9:16-19,22-23 Paul explains the conditions under which he preaches the gospel and the reasons why he will not accept financial help from the Corinthians.

Gospel Reading: Mark 1:29-39 Jesus cures Simon's mother in law and many others as well.

Today we continue to read from Mark's Gospel, Jesus cured Simon's mother in law, and she immediately began to serve Jesus and his disciples. Jesus also cured many others who were brought to him, healing their illnesses and driving out demons. As we will see throughout Mark's Gospel, Jesus did not permit the demons to speak because they knew his identity and would have revealed it to those who were present. On the morning after this busy day, Jesus retreated in prayer, but was pursued by Simon and others who brought news that many people were looking for him. At this point in Mark's Gospel, we begin to see a distinct role for the inner circle of Jesus' disciples. They act as intermediaries between Jesus and the people. Jesus reports to his disciples that they need to leave Capernaum to preach in other places. Today's Gospel completes a picture of Jesus' ministry: preaching, curing the sick, driving out demons, and then moving on to continue this work in another place. Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus did this throughout Galilee. Jesus' compassion and healing of the sick is a sign of the Kingdom of God. The Church continues to extend Christ's healing presence to others in its ministry to the sick. In the Sacrament of the Anointing of Sick, the Church prays for spiritual and physical healing, forgiveness of sins, and comfort for those who are suffering from illness. In today's Gospel we also notice the importance of prayer in Jesus daily life. Jesus rose early in the morning, removed himself from the crowds, and went to a deserted place to pray. We believe that Jesus found guidance and direction from God through prayer.
