REFLECTION OF FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT: It is good news that each of us is created, loved and forgiven by God. As we begin our own Lenten journey today, we need to recall and remember that we are not setting out on this journey on our own. God is with us walking by our side every step of the way. When we are tempted, we need to follow the example of Jesus. The reading get us thinking how God is faithful even when we wander away from him. This first reading is the story of Noah's Ark. The psalm remind us to be faithful. The second reading explains that the great flood preceded our baptisms. The Gospel tells us about the 40 days in the desert.

Reminder: PLEASE COME TO THE PARISH OFFICE TO RECEIVE YOUR loved ones pictures that were placed at the Altar for the month of November. Also, to those families who lost a loved one this past year and had their Funeral Services at this Parish please come to pick up your beautiful Memory Candle that was at the Altar for the month of November.

The announcement that Jesus makes as he begins his preaching in today's Gospel is recalled on Ash Wednesday at the signing with ashes: "Repent and believe in the gospel." This is our challenge for Lent; indeed, it is the challenge of our entire life. During Lent, we are invited to strengthen and to renew the promises that we made at our Baptism, to reject Satan and sin so as to live as children of God. Through the grace of God that we received at Baptism, we follow the promptings of the Holy Spirit and know that with Jesus' help, we will be victorious over sin. Talk with your family about the importance of Baptism. At Baptism, our sins were forgiven, and we promised to live as children of God. As part of the Rite of Baptism, we rejected sin and Satan. During Lent we renew the promises of our Baptism and to follow God.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Genesis 9:8-15 God establishes a covenant with Noah, giving a rainbow as its sign.

Responsorial Psalm: 25:4-5,6-7,8-9 A prayer praising God for his covenant.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 3:18-22 In our baptism, we are saved through Christ's death and Resurrection.

Gospel Reading: Mark 1:12-15 Jesus is tempted in the desert by Satan.

This first Sunday of Lent, the Gospel reading is about Jesus' temptation in the desert. This event in the life of Jesus is in each of the Synoptic Gospels; Matthew, Mark, and Luke, but it is not found in John's Gospel. Compared to the Gospels of Matthew and Luke, the details throughout Mark's narrative are sparse. This is evident in Mark's account of Jesus' temptation in the desert. Mark tells us only that Jesus was led into the desert by the Spirit and that for 40 days he was tempted by Satan. The Gospels of Matthew and Luke explain that Jesus fasted while in the desert, that Satan presented him with three temptations, and that Jesus refused each one, quoting Scripture. The Gospels of Matthew and Mark report that angels ministered to Jesus at the end of his time in the desert. In the Synoptic Gospels, the temptation of Jesus follows his baptism by John the Baptist. In Mark's Gospel, we are told that Jesus went into the desert immediately after his baptism, led by the Spirit. Jesus' public ministry in Galilee begins after his temptation in the desert. Mark's Gospel makes a connection between the arrest of John the Baptist and the beginning of Jesus' ministry. Jesus' preaching about the Kingdom of God is in continuity with the preaching of John the Baptist. As Jesus announces it, the Kingdom of God is beginning; the time of the fulfillment of God's promises is here. The fact that Jesus spent 40 days in the desert is significant. This recalls the 40 years that the Israelites wandered in the desert after being led from slavery in Egypt. The prophet Elijah also journeyed in the desert for 40 days and nights. Remembering the significance of these events, we also set aside 40 days for the season of Lent.
