REFLECTION OF SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT: The readings for the 2nd Sunday of Lent make us think of God's revelation of Jesus Christ as his beloved son and also how God loves us. The first reading tells of how Abraham prepared to sacrifice his son Isaac, but God stopped him. The gospel tells of the Transfiguration, where the voice from the heavens revealed Jesus as God's beloved son to Peter, James and John. The Transfiguration will help us think about the ups and downs of life. Sometimes we are in a really great place, but eventually we have to come down the mountain. Mountains are a place to encounter God and rise to the mountaintop.

Reminder: PLEASE COME TO THE PARISH OFFICE TO RECEIVE YOUR loved ones pictures that were placed at the Altar for the month of November. Also, to those families who lost a loved one this past year and had their Funeral Services at this Parish please come to pick up your beautiful Memory Candle that was at the Altar for the month of November.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Every family has special moments that they remember and share again and again. The meaning and importance of these events develop and deepen over time. This is how it was with the disciples' remembrance of Jesus' Transfiguration. The full significance of what they had seen and experienced could only be understood after Jesus' death and Resurrection. As they told other believers about this event and recorded the story for us in the Bible, our understanding of what it means to call Jesus God's own Son had also deepened. As you gather as a family, think about some special family memories that your family tells over and over again. Talk about why these memories are important to you. Recall that in the Bible we find many important memories about Jesus that have been recorded for us so that we can believe that Jesus is God's Son.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Genesis 22:1-2,9a,10-13,15-18 Abraham obeyed God and prepared to offer his son, Isaac, as a sacrifice.
Responsorial Psalm: 116:10,15,16-17,18-19 A prayer of faithfulness to God.

Second Reading: Romans 8:31b-34 God's Faithfulness is shown in his offering of his own Son for our salvation.

Gospel Reading: Mark 9:2-10 Jesus is transfigured in the presence of Peter, James, and John.

On the second Sunday of Lent, the Gospel reading proclaims the story of Jesus' Transfiguration. This event is reported in each of the Synoptic Gospels; Matthew, Mark, and Luke. This year, we hear Mark's report of this event. The context for Mark's Transfiguration story is similar to that found in both Matthew's and Luke's Gospel. The Transfiguration occurs after Peter's confession that Jesus is the Messiah and Jesus' prediction about his passion. After this, in each of these Gospels, there is also a discussion of the cost of discipleship. In each case, Jesus takes three of his disciples; Peter, James, and John to a high mountain. While they are there, Elijah and Moses appear with Jesus. In Matthew's and Mark's Gospel, there is reference to a conversation among Jesus, Elijah, and Moses, but only Luke's Gospel includes the detail that this conversation is about what Jesus will accomplish in Jerusalem. Elijah and Moses are significant figures in the history of Israel. Moses led the Israelites from slavery in Egypt and received from Yahweh the Ten Commandments. In appearing with Jesus at his Transfiguration, Moses represents the Law that guides the lives of the Jewish people. Elijah is remembered as one of the most important prophets of Israel who helped the Israelites stay faithful to Yahweh. Some Jews believed that Elijah's return would signal the coming of the Messiah for the Jewish people. This belief is evidenced in the question posed by Jesus' disciples after they have witnessed the Transfiguration. The appearance of these two important figures from Israel's history with Jesus signifies Jesus' continuity with the Law and with the prophets and that Jesus is the fulfillment of all that was promised to the people of Israel.
