SAINT JOSEPH SPOUSE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY Feast Day: Tuesday March 19 Saint Joseph was obedient to the Father in Heaven, and that obedience deepened his union with Mary his spouse, making their marriage the ideal family for the Son of God. Joseph’s obedience is clearly seen in his response to four dreams by which an angel instructs Joseph how best to guard and protect the Son of God.

REFLECTION OF FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT: The metaphor of the grain of wheat, used in the Gospel for the 5th Sunday of Lent, illustrates the principle that true life and fruitfulness often require sacrifice. Just as a grain of wheat must die to produce many seeds, so must we let go of our lives in some way to gain eternal life. The readings focus on God’s covenant with us, even though we are often unfaithful. The first reading speaks of a new covenant. The second reading speaks of the obedience of Jesus Christ brought about our salvation. In the Gospel Jesus foretells his death and explains that those who follow him will find eternal life.

LENT is a preparation for the celebration of the Easter mysteries. The Paschal mysteries climax in the Passion, death and resurrection of Jesus. Lent, our Springtime, has a happy ending.

EASTER EGG HUNT sponsored by the Catholic Daughters on Easter Sunday, March 31, following the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Family life is often a balancing act in which we prioritize and attend to a variety of competing needs. We learn the value of putting others needs ahead of our own. In family life we also learn that when we make personal sacrifices to serve others, we gain so much more than we may have lost. As you gather as a family, talk about how important it is to your family life to gladly serve one another. Ask each person to consider the last time another family member asked for help. What was your response? Did you cheerfully try to honor the request, or did you ask “Why Me?” How do you think Jesus would want us to respond when someone in our family asks for help? Invite each family member to make a commitment for the next week to try to respond cheerfully to requests for help. Pray together, asking God’s help with this commitment.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:31-34 Jeremiah tells the people that the Lord will make a new covenant with them, planting the law within their hearts.

Responsorial Psalm: 51:3-4,12-13,14-15 A prayer for God’s mercy and forgiveness.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:7-9 Through his sufferings, Jesus gained salvation for all who obey him.

Gospel Reading: John 12:20-33 Jesus teaches his disciples about the way in which he will be glorified by God, and a voice from heaven is heard to affirm this teaching. Today’s Gospel reading is taken from the Gospel of John. We are reading much further into John’s Gospel than we have for the past two weeks. John’s Gospel is a preparation for the beginning of the passion narrative to follow. Jesus has just raised Lazarus from the dead, which inspired many people to believe in Jesus. This event also marks the turning point in Jesus’ conflict with the Jewish authorities. John’s Gospel tells us that the Sanhedrin met after this event and made plans to kill Jesus. The 12th chapter of John’s Gospel, Jesus is anointed at Bethany and enters Jerusalem in triumph. We see evidence of the significance of the raising of Lazarus to this event; John reports that crowds gathered to see Lazarus. Jesus predicted his suffering, death, and Resurrection and prepared his disciples to believe in the salvation that his death would accomplish. Using the metaphor of the grain of wheat, Jesus presented the idea that his dying would be beneficial. He taught that those who would be his disciples must follow his example of sacrifice. This is repeated in John’s account of the Last Supper, when Jesus washed the feet of his disciples as an example of how they must serve one another. The last section might be read as John’s parallel to the agony in the garden. We hear Jesus speak about the cosmic framework against which we are to understand his passion, death, and Resurrection. Through his death and Resurrection, Jesus conquered Satan; the ruler of this world. In this way the world is judged, but the judgement is not condemnation. Instead, through Jesus’ dying and rising, salvation is brought to the world.
