REFLECTION OF PALM SUNDAY: Palm Sunday recalls the story in Christian Scripture of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, greeted by people waving palm branches. It is a reminder for us to welcome Jesus into our hearts and to be willing to follow him. We also, reflect on Psalm 22, which Jesus quoted on the cross, expressing deep abandonment. During time we should reflect on Jesus' humble entrance into Jerusalem and his ultimate sacrifice for the sake of humanity. It reminds us of the true life that Jesus offers and the hope he brings to our daily lives. We pray that we will be able to recognize Jesus as the Son of God.

HOLY WEEK is an ideal time to seriously contemplate the road you are on. Each and every day of your life you are invited by God to choose Him with all your might and love. But like Judas, we so often betray Him by our refusal to enter Holy Week with Jesus, embracing His Cross as ours. Help us to remember the sacrifice that Our Lord made for us.

THE PASSION OF THE LORD

(Good Friday) March 29: This day recognizes the day of Christ's crucifixion which is the most solemn day of the year. It is a day for us to turn our gaze to the cross and recognize Christ's most loving sacrifice for us after swelling with him through Lent. In each Catholic Church are 14 stations which commemorate Jesus Christ's last day on earth as a man. Good Friday of the Lord's Passion is the actual day that these events of Jesus Christ's final hours occurred.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Palm Sunday, also called Passion Sunday, marks the beginning of Holy Week. During this week, we prepare ourselves for Easter by prayerfully reflecting on the events of Jesus' passion and death. During this week, your family might display a crucifix in a prominent place as a reminder of the salvation that Christ won for us. This can also serve as the focal point for family prayer during Holy Week. Because of the length and complexity of the passion narrative, it is difficult for children to remain attentive when it is proclaimed in its entirety. Families can make it a tradition to read a portion of this Sunday's Gospel each day of Holy Week, providing ample opportunity for children to ask questions and respond to the events described there.

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. Parishioners are asked to include first name, last name, envelope number, and your mailing address on any envelope that is not provided by the Parish. Thank you for your continued support.

UNLESS YOU ARE A SCHEDULED MINISTER FOR THE WEEKEND, Father Frank has asked that everyone stay out of the Sacristy. This is to protect Father, Monsignor and the Deacons or Ministers that are scheduled to be present in the Sacristy before or after Mass.

YOU MUST WEAR A MASK AT ALL TIMES If you are serving at the Altar, (Deacon, Acolyte, Lector, Cantor, EM, or any Server) The ASF has given the Parish Priest the discretion to mandate their own COVID-19 Policies.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS are sponsoring an Easter Egg Hunt on Easter Sunday. March 31, after the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Thank you, to everyone who made a donation for this event.

BLESSED SACRAMENT ADORATION April 5th

Please come and spend one hour with Jesus! My sweetest Joy is to be in the presence of Jesus in the Holy Sacrament. I beg that when obliged to withdraw in body, I may leave my heart before the holy Sacrament. How I would miss out Lord, if He were to be away from me by His Presence in the Sacrament!

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7 The Lord's servant will stand firm, even when persecuted.

Responsorial Psalm: 22:8-9,17-18,19-20,23-24 A cry for help to the Lord in the face of evildoers.

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11 Christ was obedient even to death, but God has exalted him.

Gospel Reading: Mark 14:1-15:47 Jesus is sentenced to death and crucified. The centurion who witnessed his death declared, "This man was the Son of God."

This Sunday, called Palm or Passion Sunday, is the first day of Holy Week. Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday are called the Triduum three days that are the highlight of the Church year. There are two Gospels proclaimed at today's Mass. The first Gospel, proclaimed before the procession with palms, tells of Jesus' triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. Riding on a borrowed colt, Jesus was hailed by the crowds as they blessed God and shouted "Hosanna!" This event is reported in each of the four Gospels. We read the passion of Jesus as found in the Gospel of Mark. We will hear these events proclaimed again when we celebrate the Triduum later in the week. On Good Friday, we will read the passion of Jesus from the Gospel of John. In Mark's Gospel, Jesus' passion and death are presented as the consequence of the tension between the Jewish authorities and Jesus that had been building throughout his public ministry. This tension reached its breaking point when Jesus drove the merchants and money changers from the Temple. After this event, the chief priests and scribes began seeking a way to put Jesus to death, and yet, this is only the surface explanation for his death. Jesus understood his death to have been preordained, and he accepted this death in obedience to God's will. After he was sentenced to death, Jesus did not speak again until his final cry from the cross. During Holy Week, we prayerfully remember the events of Jesus' passion and death. As we meditate on the cross, we ask again and anew what it means to make the statement of faith that Jesus, in his obedient suffering and dying, revealed himself to us as God's Son.
