REFLECTION OF FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER:

The 4th Sunday of Easter Year B is called "Good Shepherd Sunday" because the Gospel reading features Jesus describing Himself as the Good Shepherd. This imagery highlights His role in guiding, protecting, and sacrificing for His flock, emphasizing His care and commitment to all who follow Him. The Gospel reading invites us to reflect on Jesus as the Good Shepherd. Although, it's the year of the Gospel of Mark, we're going to have a Gospel reading today from the Gospel of John and then we will go back and look at the Acts of the Apostles and the spread of the good news through the early church in the early years of Christianity. When Jesus says, "I am the good shepherd," he is not just drawing a comparison between himself and a good shepherd, a shepherd who might willingly die or give his life to protect the sheep that belong to him, he's also drawing a contrast between himself and wicked shepherds, which are described in the book of Ezekiel.

SAINT MARK EVANGELIST: April 25, St. Mark the Evangelist was responsible for the second Gospel, probably written around the year 60 in Rome. Seeking to convert as many souls as possible, he wrote the scripture in Greek. Mark sometimes referred to as John Mark, and his mother were very important in the early church. Mark prayed in Jesus' name that the lions wouldn't harm them, and immediately after his prayer, the lions fell down dead. Mark was a follower of Jesus.

The Good Shepherd makes sacrifices for the sheep not because it is required, but because it is a choice. That sounds a lot like parenting and the dynamics of a healthy family life. Parents choose to make sacrifices for their children out of love, not obligation. Christian parents model and invite their children to choose to make sacrifices for other family members and for other people, acting out of love rather than obligation. When you gather as a family, invite each family member to consider the attitude that permeates their participation in family life. Do we do family chores cheerfully and without having to be asked multiple times? Do we gladly share with others? Do we willingly contribute to the family good when asked? Discuss how the Good Shepherd might inspire your family life.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 4:8-12 Peter announces an act of healing in the name of Jesus Christ.

Responsorial Psalm: 118:1,8-9,21-23,26,28,29 A prayer of thanksgiving to God for his kindness.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-2 God revealed his love for us by calling us children of God.

Gospel Reading: John 10:11-18 Jesus says that he is the good shepherd who knows his sheep.

The fourth Sunday of Easter is also called Good Shepherd Sunday. John's Gospel follows Jesus' healing of the man born blind and the rejection of this miracle by the Jewish leaders who question Jesus' authority to heal. Jesus responds to this challenge by calling himself the Good Shepherd. He is criticizing the leadership of the Pharisees and the other Jewish leaders. The Pharisees and other Jewish leaders are so angry that they attempt to stone and arrest Jesus. This controversy with the religious leaders continues until Jesus' death. Jesus describes his relationship with his followers as similar to the relationship between a good shepherd and his sheep. As a good shepherd will risk and lay down his life in order to protect his sheep, Jesus willingly sacrifices himself for the sake of his sheep. Jesus contrasts the actions of the good shepherd with the actions of the hired shepherd who abandons the sheep in the face of danger. In the verses following Jesus' teaching, we learn that the Pharisees and the other religious leaders understand that Jesus is referring to them when he describes the hired shepherds. The concern of a good shepherd for his sheep is part of the shepherd's job. Jesus says, however, that the actions of the good shepherd are based upon the relationship that develops between the shepherd and the sheep. This is at the heart of the difference between the good shepherd and the hired shepherd. The good shepherd knows the sheep therefore acts out of love. For the Good Shepherd, this is never simply part of a job; this love in action is integral to his identity. As the sheep are known by the Good Shepherd, the Father knows Jesus and Jesus knows the Father. There is an essential unity between the Father and the Son.
