THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS: Feast Day Friday June 7th, St. John Paul II said, “The Sacred Heart has given us everything redemption, Salvation, sanctification.” The Sacred Heart is the heart of Christ and also indicates His love for Humanity. The catechism of the Catholic Church says, “The prayer of the Church venerates and honors the Heart of Jesus just as it invokes his most holy name. Out of love for men, he allowed to be pierced by our sins.

REFLECTION: SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

The church invites us to reflect on our relationship with God who is a Trinity of Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The experience of the People of God in the Old Testament is that they were a people chosen by God. God Expresses his great love for his people through his interaction with them at the time of the exodus from Egypt, and later on through the prophets. In the New Testament, Jesus, the Son of God made human, invites us to share in the life of God and become his sons and daughters. Jesus invites us to call God ‘Abba,’ Father. He shows us how to relate with God the Father and how to approach him as a loving parent. At the conclusion of the gospel, Jesus sends his disciples out to all nations, ordering them to baptize them in the name of the Trinity. The Holy Spirit, the eternal love between Father and Son, is given to us believers so that we can participate in the life of God. How does the Holy Spirit assist me, every day, to deepen my relationship with this God who is eternal Love?

In the beginning of today's Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples to make preparations for the Passover meal. Like most meals, the Passover meal required planning and preparation. Our celebration of the Sunday Eucharist also requires planning and preparation. Certainly the ministries at the Eucharist prepare for their roles: the person presiding prays and prepares the homily; the prayers of petition are written; the music ministers prayerfully select music and practice it before Mass; Eucharistic ministers, lectors and altar servers prepare carefully for their roles. As the worshipping assembly, we can also prepare for the Mass through our prayer during the week, by reading the Scripture before Mass, and by making ourselves present to the Eucharistic celebration.

BLESSED SACRAMENT ADORATION June 7th

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Exodus 24:3-8 The covenant is established between God and the people.

Responsorial Psalm: 116:12-13,15-16,17-18 God brings salvation.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15 Christ is the mediator of the new covenant.

Gospel Reading: Mark 14:12-16.22-26 Jesus shares his Last Supper with his disciples.

Today, the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate a second solemnity, which marks our return to Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, the Latin words for "the Body of Christ." In the most recent revision of our liturgical rites, the name for this day is expanded to be a more complete reflection of our Eucharistic theology. In our reading for today, we read the account of the Last Supper found in the Gospel of Mark. It begins with the instructions that Jesus gave to his disciples to prepare their Passover celebration. It then goes on to give an account of the Last Supper. On this Sunday, however, our Lectionary reading omits the verses between these two passages; in those omitted verses we hear Jesus predict his betrayal by one of his disciples. The Gospel of Mark describes Jesus' Last Supper with his disciples as a celebration of the Jewish feast of Passover. The Jewish celebration of Passover is a memorial to and a ritual participation in the defining moment of Israel's history. It celebrates God's deliverance of his people from slavery in Egypt. The Passover meal includes many ritually important elements, such as unleavened bread, lamb, and bitter herbs. Each food item recalls an aspect of the Exodus event. The instructions for the preparation of this meal are carefully prescribed in the Law of Moses. It is a central obligation of the Jewish faith tradition to celebrate this meal and to give thanks to God for his deliverance and protection. The Gospel for today reminds us that the Eucharist is a memorial of Christ's sacrifice on the cross. We believe that Jesus is truly present to us in the elements of bread and wine.
