Saint Aloysius Gonzaga: Feast Day Friday June 21st. St. Aloysius gave up a privileged life and a princely inheritance to live the vows of religious life even to the point of contracting the plague because of his selfless care for people already sick with it. He is the patron St. of Catholic young people because of how diligently he pursued holiness before his death at the age of 23. During his life he had focused on doing what God wanted; serving and loving God and his neighbor.

REFLECTION: ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

TIME The readings for the 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time are filled with images of growth. The first reading tells of planting a shoot on a mountain, which then becomes a shelter for the birds. In the Gospel Jesus tells the parable of the seed that grows and the parable of the mustard seed. The readings focus on faith, growth, and humility. The messages show God's power to nurture and transform lives, encouraging us to trust and follow Him. God takes a small shoot and grows it into a great tree. This shows His ability to nurture small beginnings into something great. We are called to walk by faith, not by sight. Trusting in God's plan, even when we cannot see the outcome; please Him. We will be judged by Christ for what we have done. Our actions matter and we should strive to do good. God humbles the proud and exalts the humble. He values humility and lifts up those who are lowly. The kingdom of God starts small but grows large like a mustard seed. This shows the power of faith and the growth of God's Kingdom.

Church documents call the Christian family the “domestic church.” This is both a compliment and a call to commitment. Because the family is a community formed in love and dedicated to the physical and spiritual growth of its members, it is a miniature version of the Kingdom of God on earth. This Sunday’s Gospel Reading, consists of two parables that Jesus used to help us discern the mystery of the Kingdom of God. The beginning of the kingdom is compared to a tiny seed that over time matures and ripens. Many of the things we do within the family seem insignificant. They are part of our daily activity and attract little attention. Yet they show our love and concern for one another. Consider how your family’s concerns reflect the Church’s concerns for those members who are poor, forgotten, hungry, ill shunned or lonely.

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. Parishioners are asked to include first name, last name, envelope number, and your mailing address on any envelope that is not provided by the Parish. Thank you for your continued support.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Ezekiel 17:22-24 I, the Lord, bring low the high tree and lift high the lowly tree.

Responsorial Psalm: 92:2-3,13-16 They that are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:6-10 The lives of all are to be revealed before the tribunal of Christ.

Gospel Reading: Mark 4:26-34 The reign of God is like a mustard seed.

After Lent, the Easter season, and three Sundays of feast days Pentecost, Most Holy Trinity and Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ; the Church returns to Ordinary Time. This Sunday’s Gospel from Mark carries a significant message regarding faith and the Kingdom of God. In Mark’s Gospel, Jesus appears reluctant to reveal his identity as the Son of God. After performing miracles of healing, he warns those cured to tell no one. Also, when preaching, Jesus chooses to speak to the crowds in parables, leaving them to discern his message. Only to his disciples does he explain the parable’s meaning, and he does this in private at a later time. Today’s Gospel Reading consists of two parables about seeds. In the first, Jesus tells those gathered that this is “how it is with the kingdom of God.” A Man scatters seed which over time sprouts and develops. Then when the grain is ripe, the man harvests his crop. The emphasis in the parable is on the seed, which seemingly has the power to grow on its own. In this it is like the Kingdom of God. While on earth, Jesus planted the seeds of the kingdom by his life, miracles, teaching, and suffering. However, the kingdom is not yet fully established. Although already present in Jesus and his group of twelve, it has yet to come to fruition; just as the seed in the parable needs time to grow, so does God’s kingdom. The second parable focuses on the tiny mustard seed. Though not the smallest of all seeds, it is most likely the smallest that a first century farmer in Jesus’ part of the world would have sown. Small as the mustard seed is, it develops into a tree. These parables help us discern about the Kingdom of God and our own faith. The Kingdom of God is present in the Church.
