REFLECTION: TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

TIME The Mass readings for the 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time offer timeless wisdom for our lives today. Jesus urges us to fear no opposition, as truth will prevail. He reminds us of God’s care, urges us to fear no opposition, as truth will prevail. He reminds us of God’s care, urging us to boldly proclaim truth in adversity. Jesus shows His power over nature, calming storms and teaching trust in Him. He asks us to acknowledge Him before others, knowing our faithfulness will be acknowledged before God. Jesus reveals His identity and the path of suffering, inviting us to take up our own crosses and follow Him. In losing ourselves for His sake, we find true life. In his day, power over nature was believed to be a sign of divinity, only God calms storms. Jesus’ rebuke of the storm also echoes the rebuke he uses when he talks to and expels demons. In each situation, Jesus’ power and authority is a sign of his divinity. Indeed, the disciples are left wondering about Jesus’ identity at the conclusion of today’s Gospel.

The Nativity of St. John the Baptist: Feast Day Monday June 24th,

John the Baptist spent his adult life preparing the way for Jesus, and proclaiming that “the Kingdom of Heaven is close at hand.” He was born to Zachary and Elizabeth. When Jesus came to John to be baptized, John recognized Jesus as the Messiah and baptized Him, saying: “It is I who need baptism from you.” John was imprisoned and later beheaded. Many came to know Jesus through John the Baptist.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Worries and concerns are part of human life. Jesus teaches us, however, that we ought not to let worries and concerns consume us. Jesus teaches us that our faith ought to lead us to trust in God's protection and love, no matter how strong the whirlwind going on around us. Like the disciples, we can bring our worries and concerns to Jesus in prayer. Jesus will hear our cries for help. He knows that our faith can be fragile and he will act so that our trust in God will be strengthened. As you gather as a family, invite each family member to talk about something that might be worrying them. Talk about how important it is to share worries and concerns with other people. When we do this, we learn to see our worries from a different perspective. Pray together as a family that Jesus will help us have faith in God's love and protection.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Job 38:1,8-11 The Lord answers Job's complaints.

Responsorial Psalm: 107:23-24,25-26,28-29,30-31 A song of praise to God for rescue.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:14-17 Those in Christ are a new creation.

Gospel Reading: Mark 4:35-41 Jesus calms the storm. Mark's Gospel presents a vivid portrait of Jesus, whose words and deeds show that he is the Son of God. The Gospel describes the end of a day of teaching in Jesus' ministry. Jesus taught the crowd in parables and then offered explanations to his disciples. Jesus then led his disciples away from the crowds and into the boats that they will use to cross the Sea of Galilee. The sea and its surrounding area are the settings for Jesus' teachings and miracles. The reading describes how Jesus calmed a storm at sea. It is the first of four miracles that are presented in sequence at this point in Mark's Gospel. Jesus' disciples are frightened by the sudden storm; they do little to inspire confidence in the reader. Mark notes the contrast between the disciples' terror and Jesus' peace. Jesus is sleeping, untroubled by what is going on around him. The disciples' words to Jesus are telling. They are familiar enough with Jesus to dare to wake him. Their words to him are words of reproach, questioning his care for them. A careful reader might wonder what the disciples expected Jesus to do. Are they more troubled by the storm or by Jesus' inattentiveness to their needs? How many of us have chided a family member or friend for not agreeing with our assessment of the severity of a situation? The Gospel offers evidence of Jesus' power and authority as he calms the storm. This Gospel is a metaphor for our lives. We are in the boat, the storms of life are raging around us, and like the disciples, we may believe that Jesus is unconcerned, or "sleeping." We hope that we will be as familiar with Jesus as his disciples. If we feel that Jesus is sleeping, are we comfortable enough to wake Jesus and present him with our needs? When we bring our worries to God in prayer, we learn to see things from God's perspective.
