Saint Thomas. Apostle: Feast Day
Wednesday July 3rd. St. Thomas is famous for having doubted the Resurrection of Jesus and for demanding physical proof of the wounds of Christ’s Crucifixion. The phrase “doubting Thomas” was coined for his lack of faith. When Jesus showed him the wounds, St. Thomas became the first person to explicitly acknowledge the divinity of Jesus. He taught us to look beyond ourselves and be led on the path of the grace of God.

REFLECTION: THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The readings for the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time show us that God wants nothing but life and goodness for us, if only we will let Him rescue us. The first reading explains that God desires life for us, not death. The second reading tells us that God desires abundance for all of his children. In the Gospel, Jesus brings a young girl back to life and heals a woman who has been suffering for years. We see the importance of faith and the call to share our blessings. God created life to be everlasting. Death came through the devil’s envy, not from God. These themes highlight God’s love and our call to live with faith and generosity. The readings invite us to trust in Jesus and share our blessings. We must consider that Jesus never promised us a life free from hardship, but he doesn't expect us to try to survive on our own. He wants to help us. This Gospel encourages us to remember that Jesus is always ready to help us, especially in our toughest moments.

FAMILY CONNECTION

There are many ways in which we can compare the request for healing made by Jairus and the request of the woman with the hemorrhage. One comparison helps us think about prayer. Jairus asked Jesus for healing on his daughter's behalf; the woman with the hemorrhage has no one to speak for her and bravely approached Jesus on her own initiative. In our prayers, we do both. We intercede for others' needs, and we also courageously express our own needs to God. We find hope in Jesus' response to both of these people, who sought him out in their hour of need. As you gather as a family, talk about some of the things you have prayed for this week. Some of your prayers may have been for other people, and some of your prayers may have been for your own needs. In today's Gospel we find encouragement for both kinds of prayer.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24 Death entered the world through the work of the devil.

Responsorial Psalm: 30:2,4,5-6,11,12,13 A prayer of thanksgiving to God for having rescued us.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15 As Christ became poor for our sake, so must we share with those in need from our abundance.

Gospel Reading: Mark 5:21-43 Jesus heals a woman afflicted with a hemorrhage and raises Jairus's daughter from death. Today's Gospel reports two stories of healing. One story tells us about a father's great love for his dying daughter. The other story tells us about a desperate woman who risks much as she seeks healing from Jesus. In each story, the request for healing is itself a courageous act of faith, and yet very different circumstances are represented by the lives of each suffering person. Jairus is described as a synagogue official, a man of considerable standing in the Jewish community. Distraught over his daughter's poor health he approaches Jesus and asks him to heal her. We can imagine that his daughter has been ill for some time and that her condition is deteriorating. As Jesus leaves with Jairus, Mark describes a second person who seeks healing from Jesus, a woman with a hemorrhage. This woman secretly touches Jesus from behind and is immediately cured. In response, Jesus turns and asks who touched him. Jesus' disciples, always a little clueless in Mark's Gospel, help us envision the scene. The crowds are pushing in on Jesus, and yet he, knowing that power has gone out of him, asks who touched him. The woman steps forward and acknowledges what she had done. Jesus responds by acknowledging her as a model of faith and sends her away in peace. At this point, we can imagine Jairus's impatience with Jesus; his daughter is dying and Jesus hasn't helped him yet. Messengers arrive and confirm Jairus's worst fear; his daughter has died. Jesus ignores their message and reassures Jairus. Jesus then enters the room of the dead girl. Takes her by the hand, and instructs her to arise. Jairus's faith in Jesus had not been in vain; his daughter is restored to life.
