Saint Benedict, Abbot: Feast Day Thursday July 11th, St. Benedict gave advice to the Kings and Popes and could read peoples' consciences. He has the gift of prophesy and worked miracles. He found water on a desolate mountaintop to quench the thirst of his monks. He retrieved a bill hook's iron from the bottom of a lake and rejoined its handle. He also prevented a monk from leading a dissolute life. Saint Benedict is the patron saint of students.

REFLECTION: FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The readings for the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time show us how God works through human weakness and the importance of faith. These themes help us understand how God empowers us and calls us to trust in Him. God empowers Ezekiel to speak to the rebellious people of Israel. This shows that God will make His presence known even if people do not listen. Jesus is rejected by the people in Nazareth because of His humble background. This shows how lack of faith can limit what God can do in our lives. Jesus is only able to heal a few sick people in Nazareth because of their unbelief. This highlights the importance of having faith in God's power to heal and help us. God tells Ezekiel that the people will know a prophet has been among them whether they listen or not. This emphasizes the importance of recognizing and listening to those God sends to us. We must trust in God's power, even in our weakness. It calls us to have faith and recognize God's messengers in our lives.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Our family plays an important role in shaping us and forming our self identity. In family life, we find a safe place to discover who we are and who God calls us to be. Sometimes the influences from outside our family can make us unrecognizable to those who know us best. Outside influences can lead us away from God, or they can lead us toward a deeper relationship with God. In the Gospel, we see that the people of Nazareth could not recognize Jesus as the Son of God. They could know him only as the son of Mary. Through our family life we will be encouraged to filter the many influences on our lives through the lens of faith so that we will become the person that God calls us to be. As you gather as a family, pray that we deepen our relationship with God.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Ezekiel 2:2-5 The Lord sends the prophet Ezekiel to the Israelites.

Responsorial Psalm: 123:1-2,3-4 A prayer to God for mercy.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 12:7-10 Paul bears insults and weakness for the sake of Christ.

Gospel Reading: Mark 6:1-6 Jesus is rejected in his hometown.

This Gospel immediately follows upon last week's stories of the raising of Jairus's daughter and the healing of the woman with a hemorrhage. It sets the context of the readings for the next two weeks in which Jesus will extend the work of his ministry to his disciples. The Gospel describes what many believe to have been the typical pattern of Jesus' ministry: teaching in the synagogue followed by acts of healing. In his hometown of Nazareth, the people are amazed by what they hear, but they also cannot comprehend how someone they know so well might move them so powerfully. We learn some interesting details about Jesus and his early life. Jesus' kinfolk know him to be a carpenter, an artisan who works in wood, stone, and metal. He probably learned this trade from his father. Family members of Jesus are also named. Mark describes Jesus as the son of Mary, which is an unusual designation. Adult males were more typically identified with the name of their fathers. It is unclear why Mark deviates from this custom. Brothers and sisters of Jesus are also named. Scholars are divided on how to interpret this. We believe that Mary was and remained always a virgin, thus we do not believe that this Gospel refers to other children of Mary. Some have said that these family members might be Joseph's children from a previous marriage, but there is little evidence to support this. Others explain this reference by noting that the words brother and sister were often used to refer to other types of relatives, including cousins, nieces, and nephews. This tells us that Jesus is hampered from performing miracles in Nazareth because of the people's lack of faith. Jesus is said to be surprised by this. He did not predict or foresee this rejection, because of this we see the human side of Jesus.
