Our Lady of Mount Carmel: Feast Day Tuesday July 16th, The scapular was to be a signal grace for the Carmelite order. Mary promised that whoever died in it would not suffer everlasting punishment and would quickly be released from purgatory. Along with being the patroness of the Carmelites, she is also the patron saint of protection from danger, and for deliverance from purgatory. Mount Carmel symbolizes the power of prayer and a call devotion to ones faith.

REFLECTION: FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

TIME The readings for the fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time focus on God’s call and mission. We see how God chooses ordinary people to carry out His work. Amos was a shepherd when God called him to prophesy to Israel. This shows that God can call anyone for His mission. In Ephesians, we learn that we are blessed with spiritual riches in Christ. This means we are chosen, redeemed, and sealed with the Holy Spirit. Jesus sends out the Twelve apostles to preach, heal, and expel demons. They are to rely on God and the hospitality of others. The apostles were sent to preach repentance. This teaches us the importance of turning away from sin and believing in God’s message. Jesus instructs the apostles to take minimal supplies. This shows that we should trust God to provide for our needs. The themes for the fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B, remind us that God calls us all to serve Him. We are blessed in Christ and should trust in God as we carry out our mission.

Families who work together to accomplish routine household tasks know that the benefits are more than efficiency. In sharing daily tasks, we accomplish more, but we also build relationships that last and it's a lot more fun! Jesus sent his disciples in pairs to minister in his name. Perhaps the job was accomplished more effectively this way, but more importantly Jesus' mission was accomplished more authentically. The Christian message can only authentically be proclaimed in and through the community of faith. In our work with others, we build this community of faith and can invite others to share in it. As you gather as a family, talk about some household tasks that are more easily accomplished when two or more people work together.

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. Parishioners are asked to include first name, last name, envelope number, and your mailing address on any envelope that is not provided by the Parish. Thank you for your continued support.

UNLESS YOU ARE A SCHEDULED MINISTER FOR THE WEEKEND, Father Frank has asked that everyone stay out of the Sacristy. This is to protect Father, Monsignor and the Deacons or Ministers that are scheduled to be present in the Sacristy before or after Mass.

YOU MUST WEAR A MASK AT ALL TIMES If you are serving at the Altar, (Deacon, Acolyte, Lector, Cantor, EM, or any Server) The ASF has given the Parish Priest the discretion to mandate their own COVID-19 Policies.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK every third weekend of the Month. In Nambe Pueblo, Nambe & Pojoaque; after the celebration of the Mass. In El Rancho; before the Mass.

BLESSED SACRAMENT ADORATION August 2nd

Please come and spend one hour with Jesus! My sweetest Joy is to be in the presence of Jesus in the Holy Sacrament. I beg that when obliged to withdraw in body, I may leave my heart before the Holy Sacrament. How I would miss out Lord, if He were to be away from me by His Presence in the Sacrament!

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Amos 7:12-15 The prophet Amos is sent from Bethel.

Responsorial Psalm: 85:9-10,11-12,13-14 A prayer for the Lord's salvation.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:3-14 Paul teaches that we were chosen for Christ before the creation of the world.

Gospel Reading: Mark 6:7-13 Jesus instructs his disciples and sends them to preach repentance.

This week's Gospel describes how Jesus sent the disciples to minister in his name and the disciples' return to Jesus after. These two passages, however, are not presented together in Mark's Gospel. Inserted between the two is the report of Herod's fears that Jesus is John the Baptist back from the dead. Jesus' ministry is presented in connection with the teaching of John the Baptist. Jesus' public ministry begins after John is arrested. John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus, who preached the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God. While we do not read these details about John the Baptist in our Gospel this week or next week, our Lectionary sequence stays consistent with Mark's theme. Recall that last week we heard how Jesus was rejected in his hometown of Nazareth. The insertion of the reminder about John the Baptist's ministry and his death at the hands of Herod in Mark's Gospel makes a similar point. Mark reminds his readers about this dangerous context for Jesus' ministry and that of his disciples. Preaching repentance and the Kingdom of God is dangerous business for Jesus and for his disciples. Mark wants his readers to know that we too, may find resistance as we choose to be disciples. The Gospel tells us that Jesus sent out the Twelve. The twelve were selected from among Jesus' disciples and named by Mark. Mark notes that these twelve are also called "apostles." The word apostle means "one who is sent." Jesus continues to send us into the world as his disciples. But like the first disciples, we are not sent alone. Jesus has given us the community of the Church, which strengthens our life of discipleship. In our work with others, we build this community of faith and can invite others to share in it.
