Saint Joachim & Anne, Parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary: Feast Day Friday July 26th, Mary had good, faithful parents who raised her with a love and devotion to God like none other except Jesus Christ himself. Saint Joachim (sometimes spelled Joaquin) and Saint Anne serve as role models for parents and both deserve to be honored and emulated for their devotion to God and Our Lady Mary, the Mother of God. There are no mentions of them in the Bible.

REFLECTION: SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

TIME In the first reading from Jeremiah, God speaks against the leaders who mislead His people. These leaders have not cared for the flock and have led them astray. God promises to step in and lead His people Himself, ensuring they are safe and well guided. In the second reading from Ephesians, Paul speaks about how Christ’s sacrifice has made us one. Jesus broke down the barriers that separated us. Now, we all have access to God and can live in peace with each other. This unity is a gift from Christ. His death on the cross was for all people, breaking down walls of division. Through Him, we are brought together as one family in God. Our unity in Christ brings peace. We are no longer strangers but brothers and sisters. This peace is a sign of Christ’s work in our lives, making us one. As we reflect on the Gospel, we see God’s promise to lead, Christ’s unifying sacrifice, and Jesus’ compassionate leadership. These readings remind us of God’s constant care and the unity and peace we find in Christ.

Family demands can make us feel like Jesus and the twelve apostles. We wish for times of relaxation and renewal, but there are errands to do, household chores to keep up with, volunteer commitments to keep. These are all good things, but we can be left feeling drained and tired as we try to keep up. Perhaps we might take the opportunity this week to give ourselves permission to find the rest and relaxation that Jesus seeks for his disciples in today's Gospel. One of the gifts we can give to one another in our family life is assistance in finding the time and space to renew ourselves through prayer. Notice how Jesus tried to find time and space for his disciples to rest, ask God as a family to help us renew ourselves so that we may be better disciples of Jesus.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Jeremiah 23:1-6 The Lord promises to shepherd his people Israel.

Responsorial Psalm: 23:1-3,3-4,5,6 The Lord is our shepherd.

Second Reading: Ephesians 2:13-18

Christ has reconciled us with God and united us in peace.

Gospel Reading: Mark 6:30-34 Jesus invites his disciples to rest after their ministry, and Jesus is moved with pity for the crowds who pursue them.

In this today's Gospel, we read the report of the return of the Twelve, who were sent by Jesus to preach repentance, heal the sick, and drive out demons. When the Twelve return to Jesus, he invites them to come away from the crowds and rest. But the crowds will not give them peace. As the Twelve have shared in Jesus' ministry, they now appear to share in his popularity. The crowds continue to approach them, and Mark reports that the disciples don't even have time to eat. In an effort to get away, Jesus and his disciples board a boat in hopes of finding a deserted place. But the crowds notice this and arrive ahead of them. The crowds are so persistent that Jesus and his disciples cannot find a place to be alone. Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus is moved with pity and begins to teach the crowds. Our Gospel for today stops here, but Mark's report of the unyielding demands of the crowd continues in the verses that follow. If we were to continue reading from Mark's Gospel, we would hear Jesus instruct his disciples to feed the crowd in the familiar miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. The work of Jesus and his disciples appears to be a round the clock job. In the next few weeks, we will hear the story of Jesus' feeding of the multitude, but our Lectionary will turn to the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John to report and reflect on this story. We who are Jesus' disciples today have also been sent to share the Gospel with others. Perhaps our commitment to following Jesus as his disciple leaves us feeling tired and overwhelmed. Today we hear Jesus affirm the importance of times of rest and renewal. This is what we seek in prayer and our celebration of the Eucharist.
