Saint Rose of Lima: Feast Day Friday August 23rd, Rose of Lima is proof of the truth that the saints are God’s most joyous and winsome friends. They find joy even in their suffering. Such was St Rose, who might be described as a “Little Flower” of the New World. The Catholic Church says that many miracles followed her death: there were stories that she has cured a leper, and that at the time of her death the city of Lima smelled like roses and roses fell from the sky.

ABUSE AWARENESS TRAINING FOR ADULTS:

REFLECTION: TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

On the 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time the reading calls us to live with wisdom and understanding. They encourage us to seek true nourishment from Jesus, The Bread of Life, and live in a way that pleases God. The first reading from Proverbs invites us to leave behind foolishness and choose the way of understanding. Wisdom offers us true life and fulfillment. The second reading from Ephesians reminds us to live with wisdom, understanding God’s will for our lives. It urges us to be careful in how we live, making the most of every opportunity. In the Gospel, Jesus offers Himself as the living bread from heaven. Those who partake in Him through the Eucharist will receive eternal life. Jesus promises eternal life to those who believe in Him. This promise is a central theme, showing that true life is found in Jesus. These readings remind us that true life and joy are found in following Jesus and living according to God’s will. We must nourish our spirits with Christ in the Eucharist, and be thankful.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Our faith teaches us that when we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, Jesus himself is present to us. Through the actions of the Mass, the bread and wine truly become the Body and Blood of Christ. This is what we mean by the word transubstantiation. Jesus makes himself present to all who receive the Body and Blood of Christ. If there are children in your family who have already celebrated their First Communion, invite them to share their memories of this special day. If you have family photos from this occasion, bring them out and share them. Adults in the family may also share memories or photos of their First Communion. Reflect together on what Jesus means when he calls himself the “living bread.” Recall that every time we receive the Eucharist, Jesus keeps the promise he made in today’s Gospel.

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. Parishioners are asked to include first name, last name, envelope number, and your mailing address on any envelope that is not provided by the Parish. Thank you for your continued support.

UNLESS YOU ARE A SCHEDULED MINISTER FOR THE WEEKEND, Father Frank has asked that everyone stay out of the Sacristy. This is to protect Father, Monsignor and the Deacons or Ministers that are scheduled to be present in the Sacristy before or after Mass.

YOU MUST WEAR A MASK AT ALL TIMES If you are serving at the Altar, (Deacon, Acolyte, Lector, Cantor, EM, or any Server) The ASF has given the Parish Priest the discretion to mandate their own COVID-19 Policies.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK every third weekend of the Month. In Nambe Pueblo, Nambe & Pojoaque; after the celebration of the Mass. In El Rancho; before the Mass.

BLESSED SACRAMENT ADORATION September 6th
Please come and spend one hour with Jesus! My sweetest Joy is to be in the presence of Jesus in the Holy Sacrament. I beg that when obliged to withdraw in body, I may leave my heart before the Holy Sacrament. How I would miss out Lord, if He were to be away from me by His Presence in the Sacrament!

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Proverbs 9:1-6 Wisdom has set a feast before us.

Responsorial Psalm: 34:2-3,4-5,6-7 A prayer of praise to God for his goodness.

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:15-20 Filled with the Spirit, Christians strive to follow the will of the Lord.

Gospel Reading: John 6:51-58 Jesus teaches that whoever eats his flesh and drinks his blood will live forever. This Sunday, we read from the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John. In that reading, the crowds wondered about how Jesus could say that he had come down from heaven because they knew Jesus to be the son of Joseph. In the Gospel, some have difficulty with Jesus’ teaching that he is the living bread sent from God. Recall that Jesus had told them that just as God gave the Israelites manna to sustain them in the desert, so now God has sent new manna that will give eternal life. In the concluding verse of last week’s Gospel repeated in today’s reading. Jesus himself is the bread sent by God; Jesus’ flesh is the bread that is given for the life of the world. For those who heard but did not understand Jesus is the teaching that the bread that Jesus will give is his own flesh. In response to the people who quarreled over his words, Jesus teaches with even greater emphasis that salvation comes to those who eat his Body and Blood. Jesus doesn’t seem to answer the question posed about how salvation will come about, perhaps because this reality can only be understood after his death and Resurrection. Jesus teaches about the life that he will give to the world. To many ears, Jesus’ words are jarring and difficult to hear. Many who heard Jesus could not accept what he said. Today many continue to struggle to accept these words. These words reveal our intimate connection with Jesus. This is the mystery that is at the heart of our eucharist theology. In the elements of bread and wine, Jesus’ Body and Blood are made truly present. When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, Jesus himself comes to dwell within us. This communion with the Lord makes us one body, brings us eternal life, and sends us forth to be Christ’s body for the life of the world.
