The Passion of Saint John the Baptist: Feast Day Thursday August 29th, Saint John the Baptist had a number of outstanding spiritual qualities. He was a fierce advocate for truth and justice, fought hard for what is right, and demonstrated his faith in a very public manner. He walked in straight paths and urged others to do likewise, directed attention away from himself to Jesus. These admirable traits serve as inspiration and guidance for our spiritual lives.

REFLECTION: TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The readings for the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time focus on faith, commitment, and unity. They show us the importance of choosing to follow God and living according to His teachings. The First Reading Joshua challenges Israel to choose their allegiance at Shechem; the people reaffirm their commitment to the Lord, recalling His deliverance and protection throughout their history. The Second Reading reflects on Christ’s love which guides marital roles: wives respecting husbands as the church respects Christ, and husbands loving wives as Christ loves the church, symbolizing unity and sanctity. In the Gospel Jesus address the difficulty of his teachings and acknowledges disbelief among his followers. After many leave, Peter reaffirms their faith, recognizing Jesus as the Holy One of God. The readings also help us understand the importance of choosing to follow God and living out our faith in daily life. They remind us that commitment to God brings unity and strength.

To Know and Believe
John 6:60-69

FAMILY CONNECTION

When a child is baptized, the parents speak on behalf of the child in professing the faith in which the child is to be baptized. The parents promise to teach their child this faith so that they may one day accept this faith as his or her own. In the example of Simon Peter, we learn that each person must also make his or her own profession of faith in Jesus as the one sent by God to save us. We pray for our children as they mature in the faith that they may learn that Jesus alone has the words of eternal life and that they may choose to follow the way of Christian discipleship. As a family, talk about the promise that parents make at their child's baptism to teach their child about Jesus and the faith of the Church. Talk about the importance of this promise to your family and about some of the things that you are doing to honor this commitment.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Joshua 24:1-2a,15-17,18b Joshua and the people declare that they will serve the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: 34:2-3,16-17,18-19,20-21 The Lord hears the cries of the just.

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:15-32 Husbands and wives should love one another as Christ loves the Church.

Gospel Reading: John 6:60-69 We hear the conclusion of the "Bread of Life discourse" in the sixth chapter of John's Gospel. In the preceding verses, which we have heard proclaimed in our liturgy over the past few weeks, we heard Jesus explain that he is the Bread of Life, given so that those who believe may have eternal life. This discourse follows the miracle in which Jesus fed more than five thousand people with five barley loaves and two fish. As Jesus has been teaching these things, John's Gospel describes a murmuring crowd unable to accept Jesus' words. The crowd had dwindled in number, and John no longer references them, or the Jews. Instead John describes the questioning of those considered to be Jesus' own disciples. Today's Gospel first records the response of those in the crowd who are described as Jesus' disciples. Just as the larger crowd had struggled with Jesus' teaching, these disciples also cannot accept Jesus' words. Jesus is said to know about their murmuring. He responds by acknowledging their unbelief and by reiterating that only those chosen by the Father will follow Jesus to the end. The Gospel reports that many of those who had been Jesus' disciples ceased to follow him at this point. The number following Jesus dwindled from a crowd of more than 5,000 to only 12 people. It is to these Twelve that Jesus now turns his attention. The conclusion of the Bread of Life discourse focused on personal faith in the life of Christian discipleship. Each person must make his or her own judgement about who Jesus is and in doing so determine the way of life that he or she will follow. God's grace invites us to be Jesus' disciples, but each person must respond to the grace of God and confess as his or her own the belief that Jesus is the one from God. This faith then commits us to the path of life, leading us to eternal life.
