Saint Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist:
Feast Day Thursday September 21st, St. Matthew is one of the twelve apostles of Jesus Christ. He was a tax collector before he met Jesus and was known as Levi. The story of his conversion is an inspiring one, and his life serves as an example of the transforming power of God’s grace. In the Gospel of Matthew, he tells us that he was sitting at the tax collector’s booth when Jesus came by and said. “Follow Me.”

REFLECTION: TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today’s Gospel reading, Jesus begins his journey to the Cross and Resurrection . The disciples are beginning to understand that Jesus is the Christ, but they cannot reconcile their understanding with Jesus’ own foretelling that he will suffer, be killed, and rise after three days. Peter rebukes Jesus, but Jesus makes it clear that all who follow him will lose their lives for his sake. As a parent you want what is best for your child. You make sacrifices to provide opportunities for your daughters and sons. Those sacrifices might include sacrificing a career in order to be home with your children or taking on an extra job to save for your child’s college tuition. Those sacrifices are everyday examples of what it means to “deny yourself, take up your cross, and follow me”. Today take time to rest in God’s love. Remember those who made sacrifices so that you would have opportunities in life. Pray about the sacrifices you are making or feel called to make out of love for God and others.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Peter had expectations about what it meant to call Jesus the Messiah, the Christ. Jesus was indeed the Messiah, but his life and death would show a different understanding of what it means to be the Messiah. We, too, have expectations of God and our own ideas about what we think God ought to be doing in our world. Like Peter, however, we may risk limiting our image of God by thinking only in human ways. God’s plan is always more than we can ever imagine. As you gather as a family, talk about what we expect God to be doing in our world and in our family life. Why do you think Peter was so upset by what Jesus was saying? Notice how Jesus reprimands Peter. Do we sometimes forget to let God be God for us? Pray that we remember that God is always working for our salvation in ways that are beyond our imagination.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 50:5-9a The suffering servant of Yahweh is assured of God’s help.

Responsorial Psalm: 116:1-2,3-4,5-6,8-9 A prayer of praise to God for his salvation.

Second Reading: James 2:14-18 James teaches that faith must be demonstrated in one’s works.

Gospel Reading: Mark 8:27-35 Peter declares that Jesus is the Christ, and Jesus teaches that those who would follow him must take up his or her cross.

Today’s reading is the turning point in Mark’s Gospel. In the presentation of the life and ministry of Jesus found in the Gospel of Mark, the deeds of Jesus have shown Jesus to be the Son of God. Yet many, including Jesus’ disciples, have not yet realized his identity. In the Gospel, Jesus asks the disciples for a field report by asking what others say about him. He then turns the question directly to the disciples and asks what they believe. Peter speaks for all of them when he announces that they believe Jesus to be the Christ. The word Christ is the Greek translation of the Hebrew word for Messiah, which means “the anointed one”. At the time of Jesus, the image of the Messiah was laden with popular expectations, most of which looked for a political leader who would free the Jewish people from Roman occupation. Jesus does not appear to have used this term for himself. As we see in today’s reading, Jesus refers to himself instead as the Son of Man, a term derived from the Jewish Scriptures, found in the Book of Daniel and in other apocryphal writings. Many scholars suggest that the phrase Son of Man is best understood to mean “human being.” Now that the disciples have acknowledged Jesus as the Christ, Jesus confides in them the outcome of his ministry: he will be rejected, must suffer and die, and will rise after three days. Peter rejects this prediction, and Jesus rebukes him severely. The image of Christ that Jesus is giving is not the image of the Messiah that Peter was expecting. Jesus then teaches the crowd and the disciples about the path of discipleship: To be Christ’s disciple is to follow in the way of the cross. This is a commitment and sacrifice that Jesus calls us to adopt.
