If you desire ANOINTING OF THE SICK for your loved one who is seriously ill, please do not wait until they are near death. It is not necessary to receive the Sacrament more than once during an illness, but as one approaches the end of life, it is beneficial to make arrangements to have a Priest hear Confession and give Communion as Viaticum. Call the Office to make arrangements to anoint your loved one.

Saint Vincent de Paul, Priest: Feast Day Friday October 27th, The Patron Saint of charitable societies, he is recognized for his charity and compassion for the poor, though he is also known for his reform of the clergy and for his early role in opposing Jansenism. REFLECTION: TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME In today’s Gospel reading, Jesus foretells his imminent suffering, death and resurrection. Unfortunately, instead of reflecting on what Christ was saying, his disciples were busy quarrelling secretly over who was the greatest. Of course, their argument was aimed at the earthly government they imagined that Christ had come to establish. So, like the community that James wrote to, Jesus’ disciples were experiencing a conflict of interest. This is what we often see in any society, church, family, and indeed anywhere that personal ambition is considered more important than anything else. There, we see infighting, gossips, indifference, aggression, threats to lives and properties, hatred and all sorts of vices. All these, come at the expense of the common good and peaceful coexistence. Whenever these exist, there can be no progress, prosperity and peace. Therefore, by using a child as an example, Jesus is simply teaching us that we have to become like children in order to be great.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Conversations such as the one described in today’s Gospel are common in family life. Perhaps these examples are familiar: “I should get the first piece of cake because I am the youngest;” “I did the dishes yesterday; someone else should do them today.” How might we respond if Jesus asked about our family arguments? What would Jesus say to us in reply? All of us need the reminder found in today’s Gospel: To be great in God’s Kingdom is to be the servant of all. As you gather as a family, recall a recent family argument about household chores or an example of bickering among family members. Talk about what was at issue in the argument. Together imagine that Jesus entered the room just as the argument ended. What would you tell Jesus your argument was about? What might Jesus say in reply?

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Wisdom 2:12,17-20 The just one is put to the test.

Responsorial Psalm: 54:3-4,5,6 & 8 A prayer for God’s protection.

Second Reading: James 3:16-4:3 Jesus teaches about the wisdom from above.

Gospel Reading: Mark 9:30-37 Jesus teaches his disciples that the greatest are those who serve all.

In today’s Gospel, we hear Jesus again predict his passion, death, and Resurrection to his disciples. The setting here is important. Jesus and his disciples are preparing to journey through Galilee, a Jewish territory in which Jesus has already encountered problems with the Pharisees. Perhaps this is why Mark indicates that Jesus was trying to journey in secret. In predicting his passion, Jesus is acknowledging the danger they will face and trying to prepare his disciples for it. Yet Mark tells us that the disciples did not understand what Jesus was saying and were afraid to ask what he meant. Such hesitation on the part of the disciples is not characteristic behavior. Peter had no fear about rebuking Jesus in last week’s Gospel. Perhaps this is an indication that the disciples were aware that a new situation was emerging. Mark paints a vivid picture in today’s Gospel. Having arrived at Capernaum, Jesus and his disciples enter a house. In this private place, Jesus asks his disciples about the argument they had while they were journeying. Again, the disciples are uncharacteristically silent and afraid to answer. They have been found out. Jesus then summons the Twelve, whom Mark identified earlier in his Gospel as those chosen by Jesus to preach and to drive out demons. To this select group of disciples, Jesus teaches that those who would be first in God’s kingdom must be servants of all. Jesus then calls forward a child and teaches the Twelve that to receive a child in Jesus’ name is to receive both Jesus and the One who sent him, We might easily fail to understand the significance of this action. Jesus is teaching his disciples and us that when we serve the least ones among us, we serve Jesus himself. Jesus is calling us to serve.
