Saint Teresa of Jesus, Virgin and Doctor of the Church: Feast Day Tuesday October 15th, Pope John Paul II declared St. Teresa a doctor of the Church on this day because of her writings and spirituality. When this title is bestowed upon a canonized Saint, it means that their teachings or philosophies are considered valuable to the Church. Teresa was a woman for God, a person of prayer, discipline, and compassion. Her heart belonged to God, and her ongoing conversion was life struggling.

REFLECTION: TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This reflection focuses on the importance of prioritizing God over possessions and material wealth. Possessions can become a prison. When we prioritize our possessions over God, we violate the First Great Commandment, which demands that we prioritize God above all else. If our possessions prevent us from loving God or others, it may be better to give them away. We should seek wisdom over material wealth because wisdom is the most precious of all wealth. Jesus says that it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God. Our identity comes from being created in the image of God, not from our possessions. Christ is enough for us, even if we have nothing in this world. The reading focus on the wisdom of God and the challenge of following Jesus. The messages encourage believers to seek God’s wisdom and prioritize spiritual wealth over material wealth. Through following Jesus we can strive for eternal life.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Today's Gospel might make us uncomfortable about our possessions. This discomfort offers us an opportunity to consider our possessions and our family's commitment to the poor. Material possessions are a necessity in our culture. Our use of these possessions and our attitude about their importance is our choice, however. It is a choice we can make with the awareness that our faith in Jesus commits us to show our care for the poor. As you gather as family, consider together these questions: Would it be possible to inventory our possessions? Are there things in our house that we no longer need or use? What might we do with these things? Talk about the warning about material possessions that Jesus gives in the Gospel. How does this make you feel?

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Wisdom 7:7-11 Wisdom is preferred above gold and silver.

Responsorial Psalm: 90:12-13,14-15,16-17 The Lord fills us with love and joy.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:12-13 The Word of God exposes the heart.

Gospel Reading: Mark 10:17-27 A man with many possessions asks Jesus what he must do to gain eternal life. Today we continue reading the Gospel of Mark where he left off last Sunday. Last Sunday our Gospel told how Jesus was tested by the Pharisees about the requirements for divorce. Recall that these chapters come from the second part of Mark's Gospel, which chronicles the beginning of Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. In today's Gospel, an unnamed man approaches Jesus and inquires about what he must do to inherit eternal life. Jesus replies that one must follow the commandments of the Law of Moses. The man acknowledges that he has observed all of these since his childhood. Jesus then says that only one thing is lacking: he must give his possessions to the poor and follow Jesus. The man leaves in sadness, and Mark tells us that this is because he had many possessions. The belief in resurrection and eternal life was a relatively recent development in Jewish thought at Jesus' time, it wasn't shared by everyone. The Pharisees taught that there would be a resurrection from the dead; the Sadducees did not share this belief. Jesus taught that there would be a final judgement for everyone and eternal life (the Kingdom of God) for believers. Jesus makes two requirements of the wealthy man who approaches him. First, he must give up his possessions. Throughout history, some Christians have taken this literally. Their example witnesses to us a radical commitment to the Gospel of Jesus. The second requirement Jesus makes of this man is the invitation that extends to all would-be disciples: "follow me." Jesus very much wants this man to be his disciple. We believe that the Christian Faith is one in which each believer is in a personal relationship with Jesus. Jesus is saddened when we are unable to follow him.
