Saint John Paul II, Pope: Feast Day Tuesday October 22nd, Pope John Paul II was the longest reigning Pope in modern history. He beatified 1,338 people and canonized 482 saints, more than all of the Popes in the last 500 years. The Vatican attributed two miracles to Pope John Paul II after his death, which helped him become a Saint faster than any other pope in Catholic Church history, a French Nun cured of Parkinson's disease and a Costa Rican woman who was cured of a brain aneurysm.

REFLECTION: TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The first reading contains many prophecies about a future servant, king or redeemer who will bring salvation to all humanity. Christians see these prophecies as referring to Jesus Christ, predicting His birth, suffering, death and victory. These prophecies highlight God's enduring love and the hope for renewal. The second reading is that Jesus is our high priest, greater than any other priest. He offered himself as the perfect sacrifice, meaning no other sacrifices are needed to take away our sins. The Gospel teaches about true discipleship, which requires self denial and bearing one's cross. Despite Jesus predicting His death and resurrection for the third time, the disciples do not fully understand. James and John ask to sit at Jesus' right and left hand in His glory, seeking positions of honor. Jesus rebukes them, explaining that true greatness in God's kingdom comes from serving others and being willing to sacrifice oneself. Leadership is about serving and helping others.

FAMILY CONNECTION

In the daily routine of family life, power struggles seem unavoidable. Whenever two or more people live together, there will be occasions of disagreement and attempts to exert influence over each other. Today's Gospel can be an invitation to consider how authority is exercised in your household. There is a temptation to exercise our authority in ways that show our power over others. Especially when conflicts emerge, many of us rely upon the power we believe our role gives to us. Jesus teaches us that there is a more persuasive form of leadership. In these daily challenges we have the opportunity to practice and teach the kind of service and leadership Jesus modeled for us in his ministry and in his passion and death. As you gather as a family, talk about ways in which you might apply Jesus' words in your family life.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11 Through his suffering, the servant of Yahweh will justify many.

Responsorial Psalm: 33:4-5,18-19,20,22 A prayer of praise for God's mercy.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16 Jesus is the high priest who sympathizes with our weakness.

Gospel Reading: Mark 10:35-45 Jesus teaches that those who wish to be great must be the servant of all.

In this Sunday's Gospel, we continue to read from the section of Mark's Gospel that reports Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. Last Sunday we heard Jesus lament the particular challenges those with many possessions face in order to enter the Kingdom of God. Jesus then predicts his passion to the Twelve, who are amazed and afraid. In this part of Mark's Gospel, Jesus' words to his closest disciples seem to be intended to prepare them for the events that will occur in Jerusalem. In today's Gospel, James and John ask to be given seats of honor when Jesus enters into his glory. Once again, the disciples seem to be selective in what they hear Jesus say. They want to share Jesus' glory, but do not understand that his glory will be preceded by his suffering. Jesus notes their lack of understanding and predicts the suffering they will endure for the sake of the Gospel. Jesus says that the honor they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear what James and John have asked, Mark reports that they are indignant. Jesus takes the opportunity to teach them. Jesus explains the importance of service and sacrifice in the life of a disciple. In particular, he seems to be preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles in the emerging Christian community. Echoing the Gospel we heard a few weeks ago, Jesus acknowledges that his teaching is countercultural. Today's Gospel, Jesus contrasts the dynamics within the community of disciples with the rulers of the Gentiles, Following Jesus' example of sacrificial love continues to be countercultural in our day as well. We might take time to consider our models of authority and examine our own exercise of authority. On whose example do we model our leadership?
