All Souls Day: Feast Day Saturday
November 2nd, This day is a day of prayer and remembrance for those who have died and not yet reached heaven. It is also known as the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. A day for being with family, visiting cemeteries, sharing memories of loved ones, and honoring traditions. Prayers appointed for that day remind us that we are joined with the Communion of Saints, who have finished their earthly life and with we share the hope of resurrection from the dead.

REFLECTION: THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

TIME The readings highlight God's love and mercy. They show how God listens to our cries and heals our brokenness. The first reading shows God's constant love, mercy, and justice. Jeremiah's messages reveal God's plans for His people, even in tough times. This message assures us that, despite our mistakes, God's grace can always guide us back to Him. The second reading has key themes important in Catholic theology, helping us understand our faith better. One main theme is that Jesus is the high priest, greater than any other priest. He offered himself as the perfect sacrifice, meaning we no longer need other sacrifices. The Gospel highlights repentance and forgiveness as central themes. Jesus calls people to turn from sin and believe in the good news of God's kingdom. He forgives sins, heals the sick, and offers hope to the marginalized. This message is crucial for those struggling with guilt and shame, in this passage, Jesus heals Bartimaeus, a blind man who persistently calls out for mercy.

Today's Gospel offers us a powerful example of faith and persistence in prayer. Those around him rebuked Bartimaeus for his efforts to attract Jesus' attention. When silenced by the crowd, however, Bartimaeus called out all the more. He is persistent and bold in his confidence that Jesus will show mercy on him and do what he asks. His persistence and great confidence with which our children bring to us their needs. In their faith and trust we can find an example of the attitude with which we might approach God in prayer. As a family, recall a request that has been made repeatedly by one family member to another. Talk about why the request continues to be made if the answer continues to be no. After reading the Gospel, pose questions such as these to your family. Why must Bartimaeus be persistent in calling out to Jesus?

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:7-9 The Lord declares himself to be the Father of Israel.

Responsorial Psalm: 126:1-2,2-3,4-5,6 A song of praise to God who does great things.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:1-6 Christ was made high priest by God.

Gospel Reading: Mark 10:46-52 Jesus restores sight to the blind man, Bartimaeus.

Today we continue to read from Mark's Gospel. We find evidence of Jesus' fame in the sizable crowd that accompanies him as he journeys to Jerusalem. Jesus' reputation as a healer has preceded him. When the blind man, Bartimaeus, hears that Jesus of Nazareth is passing by, he calls out to him, asking for his pity. When Bartimaeus calls out to Jesus, the crowd around him tries to silence him. Yet Bartimaeus persists, calling out more loudly and with greater urgency. He will not be silenced or deterred from getting Jesus' attention. We notice how quickly the crowd's reaction changes when Jesus calls for Bartimaeus. Those who sought to quiet him now encourage him. When Jesus restores Bartimaeus's sight, no elaborate action is required. In this instance, Jesus simply says that Bartimaeus's faith has saved him. Throughout Mark's Gospel, the success of Jesus' healing power has often been correlated with the faith of the person requesting Jesus' help. For example, it is because of her faith that the woman with the hemorrhage is healed. When faith is absent, Jesus is unable to heal; we see this after his rejection in Nazareth. Once his sight has been restored, Bartimaeus follows Jesus on his way to Jerusalem. Bartimaeus is the last disciple called by Jesus before he enters Jerusalem. Bartimaeus hears that Jesus of Nazareth is passing by, but he calls out to Jesus using words of faith "Son of David." Many in Jesus' time believed that the anticipated Jewish Messiah would be a descendent of King David. Bartimaeus's words prepare us for the final episodes of Mark's Gospel, which begin with Jesus' preparation for the Passover and his triumphant entry into Jerusalem. As Mark has shown us in our readings over the past Sundays.
