REFLECTION: THIRTY SECOND SUNDAY IN

ORDINARY TIME The Gospel highlights how Jesus observed people giving money at the temple treasury. He contrasts the large sums given by the wealthy with the two small coins given by a poor widow. Jesus teaches that true generosity comes from giving all we have, not just from our surplus. These readings also encourage us to give not only money but also time and talent from our hearts, emphasizing that everything we have belongs to God. This reflection challenges us to give like the widow, wholeheartedly and sacrificially. The Gospel focuses on the lesson of living by the obedience of faith, which shows itself through charity and self giving. The Reading highlight the stories of two widows, one who gives her last bit of food to Elijah and the other in the Gospel who donates her last coins to the Temple. Both widows embody the love and sacrifice that Jesus calls us to imitate. These readings tell us that God provides to those who put their faith in Him.

Saint Martin of Tours, Bishop: Feast Day Monday November 11th, Saint Martin of Tours is also the patron Saint of the poor. You can ask him to pray for you if you are struggling with poverty. You can also ask him to pray for someone you know who is poor, or for a group of poverty stricken people in a certain area. He was known to kiss a poor leper and cure him, other amazing miracles attributed to him included many healings, exorcisms, visions of angels, and temptations by devils.

Today's Gospel leads us to think about our family's financial contributions to our parish community the diocese, other Church sponsored organizations, and other charitable organizations. Good stewardship invites us to share our treasure as well as our time and talent. Sometimes, however, decisions about a family's charitable giving are made without our children's knowledge. Yet we teach more when we invite all family members to be aware of how we contribute to our Church and to other charitable organizations. As you gather as a family, talk about your family's financial contributions to your parish and to other Church activities. If your family supports other charitable organizations, you might talk about these as well. Ask God to help your family be generous like the poor widow in today's Gospel.

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. Parishioners are asked to include first name, last name, envelope number, and your mailing address on any envelope that is not provided by the Parish. Thank you for your continued support.

UNLESS YOU ARE A SCHEDULED MINISTER FOR THE WEEKEND, Father Frank has asked that everyone stay out of the Sacristy. This is to protect Father, Monsignor and the Deacons or Ministers that are scheduled to be present in the Sacristy before or after Mass.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK every third weekend of the Month. In Nambe Pueblo, Nambe & Pojoaque; after the celebration of the Mass. In El Rancho; before the Mass.

BLESSED SACRAMENT ADORATION December 6th
Please come and spend one hour with Jesus! My sweetest Joy is to be in the presence of Jesus in the Holy Sacrament. I beg that when obliged to withdraw in body, I may leave my heart before the Holy Sacrament. How I would miss out Lord, if He were to be away from me by His Presence in the Sacrament!

First Reading: 1 Kings 17:10-16 Through Elijah, a widow and her son are blest with enough flour and oil to supply them for a year.

Responsorial Psalm: 146:7,8-9 9-10 A prayer of praise to God who raises up the lowly.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:24-28 Christ died once to take away sin; he will return again to bring salvation.

Gospel Reading: Mark 12:38--44 Jesus notices a poor widow's offering and commends her great sacrifice. Today's Gospel continues to be mounting tension between Jesus and the Jewish authorities. Mark reports some of Jesus' teaching in the Temple area in today's reading. In the first part of today's Gospel, we hear Jesus warn the crowds not to follow the example of the scribes in seeking honor and attention from others. It is important to recall that Mark indicates that Jesus taught these things while in the vicinity of the Temple Jerusalem. Mark is setting the stage for Jesus' passion. Jesus then observes how Jewish pilgrims are making their contributions to the temple treasury. The Temple in Jerusalem was the center of Jewish worship in the time of Jesus. It was expected that observant Jews would make pilgrimages to the Temple to offer prayer and sacrifices. Pilgrims were also expected to make a financial contribution to the temple treasury. As we would expect to be the case, Jesus observes that those who were rich contributed large sums to the treasury. Those with less means made smaller contributions. A similar situation exists in most of our parishes as well. Jesus calls attention, however, to a poor widow who makes the smallest of contributions, two coins of little value. Jesus upholds the poor widow's offering for his disciples' consideration, commending her because her small offering was an act of profound generosity, giving from her livelihood rather than her surplus. To give from our livelihood is not only an act of generosity, it is also an act of trust in God. We can only give from our need if we trust that God will provide for us. Jesus himself demonstrated the ultimate act of generosity and trust in God as he gives his life for us on the cross.
