The Presentation of The Blessed Virgin Mary: Feast Day Thursday November 21st, The feast commemorates the presentation of the Blessed Virgin as a child by her parents in the Temple in Jerusalem. Before Mary's birth, her parents received a heavenly message that they would bear a child. In thanksgiving for God's gift of Mary's birth, they brought her to the Temple to consecrate their only daughter to the Lord. The celebration of the Feast is first documented in the 11th century.

REFLECTION: THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY IN

ORDINARY TIME These readings invite us to reflect on the end times and the hope we have in Christ. They highlight themes of final judgement, perseverance, and salvation. We are also reminded of the importance of faith and hope in the face of trials. They encourage us to stay faithful, knowing that God's promises will be fulfilled in the end. We reflect on the armor of God to help us in spiritual battles. Jesus warns us of coming suffering in Mark 13:24-32. But we are not alone; God gives us the sacraments and angels for protection. Baptism, Reconciliation, and the Eucharist strengthen us. Guardian angels and St. Michael also help us resist evil. God equips us to stand firm against the devil's tactics. These spiritual armors help us to stay strong in our faith. Jesus talks about the end times, warning of false messiahs and persecution. He tells his disciples to stay alert and faithful promising that those who endure will be saved. Earthly things are temporary, stay vigilant and trust in God's ultimate victory.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Many things in our lives and in our world are subject to change. Yet all of us find security in relationships and values that endure. Among these are our family relationships. We can confidently accept change if we know that we will continue to be loved by our family and by God. We help impart this sense of trust and confidence in our children with our daily assurances to them that nothing can change our love for them. As you gather as a family, look through photo albums. Observe and talk about things that have changed in your family life over the years. Talk also about the things that have stayed the same. We do not need to fear changes in our family life because we know that the most important aspects of our family life do not change, such as our love for one another. The same is true with God and God's love for us.

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. Parishioners are asked to include first name, last name, envelope number, and your mailing address on any envelope that is not provided by the Parish. Thank you for your continued support.

UNLESS YOU ARE A SCHEDULED MINISTER FOR THE WEEKEND, Father Frank has asked that everyone stay out of the Sacristy. This is to protect Father, Monsignor and the Deacons or Ministers that are scheduled to be present in the Sacristy before or after Mass.

YOU MUST WEAR A MASK AT ALL TIMES If you are serving at the Altar; (Deacon, Acolyte, Lector, Cantor, EM, or any Server). The ASF has given the Parish Priest the discretion to mandate their own COVID-19 Policies.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK every third weekend of the Month. In Nambe Pueblo, Nambe & Pojoaque; after the celebration of the Mass. In El Rancho; before the Mass.

BLESSED SACRAMENT ADORATION December 6th
Please come and spend one hour with Jesus! My sweetest Joy is to be in the presence of Jesus in the Holy Sacrament. I beg that when obliged to withdraw in body, I may leave my heart before the Holy Sacrament. How I would miss out Lord, if He were to be away from me by His Presence in the Sacrament!

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Daniel 12:1-3 Daniel prophesies about the judgement of the last days.

Responsorial Psalm: 16:5,8,9-10,11 God protects us and shows us the path of life.

Second Reading: Hebrews 10:11-14,18 Jesus' offering for sin has made all to be consecrated perfect forever.

Gospel Reading: Mark 13:24-32 Jesus teaches about the signs of the coming of the Son of Man.

This Sunday is the second to last Sunday of our liturgical year. As we approach the end of the Church year, our Gospel invites us to consider Jesus' predictions and teaching about the end of the world. In the context of Mark's Gospel, Jesus' word about this is spoken to his disciples as he prepares them for his passion and death. Before we consider Jesus' words, it is important to note the political backdrop against which many think Mark's Gospel was written. Most scholars concur that Mark wrote his Gospel for Christians living in or near Rome about 30 to 40 years after the death of Jesus. This was a time of political turmoil in Rome. Some Christians experienced persecution by the Romans during the reign of the emperor Nero (about 64 A.D.). Jewish revolutionaries rebelled against the Romans, which led the Romans to destroy the Temple in Jerusalem in 70 A.D. In this time of political turmoil and persecution, many in Mark's community might have wondered if the end times predicted by Jesus were in fact quite near. Last Sunday we heard Jesus' observation about the contributions being made to the temple treasury and the example of sacrificial giving that he saw in the poor widow's offering. If we had been reading Mark's Gospel continuously, we would have heard Jesus predict the destruction of the Temple, his teaching about the costs of discipleship, and the woes that will accompany the end times. Finally, we would have heard Jesus instruct his disciples about the need for watchfulness so they will not be caught unprepared for this final day of judgment. In today's Gospel, Jesus continues this teaching by offering his disciples signs to look for that will indicate that the coming of the Son of Man is near.
