Thanksgiving Day: Thursday November 28th, It is gratifying to know that Catholics often come to Mass on Thanksgiving. They come to offer thanks to God. However, the business of offering thanks has a much more profound meaning than a simple “thank you”, or even a festive family meal. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, or the Mass, is an act of thanksgiving. It is called the Eucharist, because it is an action of thanksgiving to God.

REFLECTION: SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe is a celebration of the journey toward Jesus’ second coming. This Solemnity is a celebration that reminds Catholics that Jesus is the King of the Universe and that his reign extends to every aspect of life.

Here are some reflections on this feast day. Jesus’ reign is not limited to a specific part of life, but rather extends to every aspect of life. His saving power is present everywhere. Jesus is our king and judge who shepherds us to treat others with mercy and love. He judges us based on our acts of mercy, and he invites us to identify with the poor and stranger, Jesus is the answer to every human life, and he knows the heart of every person. Jesus’ style of leadership calls us to lead with compassion, outside of ourselves. Jesus invites us to be thankful in every situation, and to reach out in love to the members of our families. Jesus’ kingdom is the Church, where we find the forgiveness he offers us and new life that results.

Understanding today's feast of Christ the King may be challenging. While most of us do not have direct experiences with kings or royalty, we have a sense of who they are. We know that royalty have sovereignty over their kingdoms. We know that those who are subjects to royalty offer them allegiance and honor. To understand how Christ is our king, we extend and magnify what we know to be true of the best of human royalty. Christ's kingship extends to all places, all people, and all times. Christ manifests his kingship through his death on the cross in which he offered salvation to all. Those who can see with eyes of faith recognize Jesus to be our heavenly king. As you gather as a family, talk about how your family shows honor and obedience to Christ our King. Ask God to help you recognize and honor Christ as King.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Daniel 7:13-14 Daniel prophesies about the coming of the Son of Man.

Responsorial Psalm: 93:1,1-2,5 A prayer of praise to God our King.

Second Reading: Revelation 1:5-8 Jesus is the firstborn of the dead and the ruler of all.

Gospel Reading: John 18:33b-37 Jesus is questioned by Pilate about the charge brought against him that he is "King of the Jews."

On this Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King. Each year we set aside this Sunday to reflect upon this title that we have given to Jesus. We read a portion of the passion from the Gospel of John, which is also part of the Gospel reading proclaimed each year on Good Friday. Pilate is shown in a more favorable light than in the other Gospels. We hear one of two dialogues between Jesus and Pilate that are reported. Pilate questions Jesus about the charges brought against him. Caiaphas and the high priests have charged Jesus with a political crime, one that would require a punishment of death. Pilate distances himself from the Jewish leaders who accuse Jesus; he is not a Jew, and he seems to want little to do with this Jewish affair. In his responses to Pilate's questions, Jesus distinguishes his kingdom from the political powers of this world. King and kingdom may be appropriate terms for Jesus' mission and promise, but only by analogy. Jesus is king, but not the king we imagine or expect. He was certainly not the kind of king Pilate feared he might be. Jesus refers to a kingdom that does not belong to this world. This has been mentioned earlier in John's Gospel. Recall that in his prayer during the Last Supper discourse, Jesus prayed for his disciples who are in the world but do not belong to the world. Yet like Jesus, they are sent into the world for the world's salvation. We see Jesus identify the final proof that his kingdom is not of this world: If his kingdom is not of this world, then there would be people fighting to save him. Today's Gospel invites us to see with eyes of faith that we might recognize that Jesus, is indeed king and Savior.
