SAINT FRANCIS XAVIER

Saint Francis Xavier, Priest : Feast Day Tuesday December 3rd, Saint Francis Xavier was widely credited with converting more people to Catholicism than anyone since Saint Paul, who lived in the First Century. He is remembered for co-founding the Society of Jesus, for his great zeal for the Faith, and for his dedication to carrying the Faith to the ends of the earth. He discerned and chose to be Christ’s disciple in the service of God and humankind. Xavier’s life teaches us to serve humbly.

REFLECTION: FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT The first Sunday of Advent marks the beginning of the new liturgical year. This season prepares us for the coming of Jesus at Christmas and at the end of time. Hope in God’s Promise: Jeremiah speaks of God’s promise to bring justice and righteousness. This reminds us to trust in God’s plans. We are called to focus on our relationship with God. We are called, in particular, to repent of sins and receive God’s forgiveness. That way, we can be ready when Jesus comes. While Jesus is away (like the traveling man in the Gospel), what are we doing with what He has given us? We are often not prepared to celebrate the birth of Christ within our hearts. The first week of Advent also offers the focus of the Second Coming of Christ. Jesus will return again, in all splendor and glory, to judge the living and the dead. We profess that fact every Sunday in our Creed. Advent is time to center our thoughts on hope. A chance to remember the hope God offers to our lost and dying world, and that He’s given us through Jesus.

In today's Gospel, Jesus warns his disciples against the fatigue that can emerge if one becomes consumed by the anxieties of daily life. Many families are too familiar with the kind of fatigue Jesus refers to here. We may be concerned about a family member's health, our job security, our children's education, or any number of other concerns. All these are important matters. Jesus does not promise an end to daily worries and fears, but he does teach his disciples that they will have the strength to withstand anxiety if they stay focused on him, remaining vigilant for his return and praying for strength to endure all tribulations. Through prayer, God helps us stay focused on that which is most important in our lives. As a family consider "Advent resolutions" to help your family stay focused on Jesus' birth and second coming.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Jeremiah 33:14-16 The Lord will fulfill his promises to Israel and Judah.

Responsorial Psalm: 25:4-5,8-9,10,14 The Lord will teach us his paths.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 3:12-4:2 Paul encourages the Thessalonians to be Holy and to please God.

Gospel Reading: Luke 21:25-28,34-36 Jesus teaches his disciples to be vigilant so that they will be ready when the Son of Man comes to glory.

Today is the first Sunday of Advent, which is also the first Sunday of the new liturgical year. The Advent season includes the four Sundays that precede Christmas. Advent is a time of preparation for the coming of the Lord. In this season, we recall two central elements of our faith: the final coming of the Lord in glory and the incarnation of the Lord in the birth of Jesus. The key themes of the Advent season are watchful waiting, preparation, and justice. In this new liturgical year, the Gospel of Luke will be the primary Gospel proclaimed. Today's Gospel is taken from the last chapter before the passion narrative in which Jesus is teaching in the Temple. We hear Jesus speak to his disciples about the need for vigilance and prayer as they wait for the coming of the Son of Man in glory. This passage marks the conclusion of a lengthy dialogue in which Jesus predicts the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem, warns about the persecution and tribulations to follow, and identifies the signs that will signal the coming of the Son of Man in glory. The community for whom Luke wrote his Gospel may have believed that they were already experiencing some of the events Jesus described. Most scholars believe that Luke's Gospel was written after the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in 70 A.D. At the time, many Christians interpreted this event as an indication that Jesus' second coming was near. Though Jesus predicts a time of destruction and fear, Jesus indicates that others will be frightened; Jesus' disciples are not to fear, but are to stand tall. Yet Jesus does not promise deliverance from anxiety or tribulations. He encourages his disciples to pray for strength.
