REFLECTION: FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS MARY AND JOSEPH

On this, Sunday within the Octave of Christmas, we honor the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. In honoring them, we also honor all families, big or small. In honoring all families, we honor the family of God, the Church. But most especially, we focus in on the hidden, day to day life of the Holy Family of Nazareth. Devotion to the Holy Family began the very same night Jesus was born. What a strange occurrence that the very first people to adore God made human were shepherds. It was not Kings, it was not priests, it was not the rich and mighty. The witnesses to God's greatest miracle, found in the comforting warmth of the Holy Family, were simple shepherds. Shepherding was not an honored profession, at that time. Quite the contrary, shepherds were poor and positioned low in the social hierarchy. In this story, the ostracized find God among their own. The Holy Family is about finding holiness where you think there is nothing holy.

WE ARE CALLED TO LOVE LIKE
JESUS!

FAMILY CONNECTION

Today's Gospel describes a time of anxiety in the life of Jesus' family. We can imagine their panic and worry as they discovered that Jesus was not with the caravan returning to Nazareth. The Holy Family journeyed with family members and friends because traveling alone was dangerous. When they found Jesus in the Temple, Jesus spoke like a typical adolescent, unsympathetic to his parents' concern. Yet his words teach an important lesson about reducing anxiety in our family life. In essence, Jesus says, "If you had remembered who I am, you would have known where to find me." In their panic, Mary and Joseph had forgotten what had been told to them before Jesus' birth, that their son was the Son of God. Knowing a person well helps reduce our anxieties for them because we can better predict how they will behave.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Sirach 3:2-6,12-14 Honor to one's parents will be rewarded.

Responsorial Psalm: 128:1-2,3,4-5 Happy are those who follow the Lord's ways.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:12-21 Do all things in the name of Jesus and give thanks to God.

Gospel Reading: Luke 2:41-52 The boy Jesus is found in the Temple.

Today we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family. This feast is part of the Christmas season, and we should place today's Gospel in the context of what Luke's Gospel tells us about the birth of Jesus. Luke has been answering the question "Who is Jesus?" through his stories of the births of John the Baptist and Jesus. Today's Gospel reading continues this theme. It has no parallel in the other Gospels and is the conclusion of Luke's Infancy Narrative. Mary, Joseph, and Jesus are presented in this Gospel as a faithful Jewish family. They are participating in the annual pilgrimage to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, an event shared each year with family and friends. When Jesus is found, Luke describes him as seated in the Temple in the midst of the Jewish teachers. Although he is young, Jesus seems not to need teaching about his Jewish tradition. In his dialogue with these learned teachers, Jesus astounds them with his insight and understanding. Jesus is a child of Israel. His Father is God. The dialogue between Mary and Jesus contains many references to family relationships. In fact, in this Gospel reading Mary and Joseph are never identified by name. Instead they are referred to by their relationship to Jesus. Ultimately, this emphasizes Luke's point about the identity of Jesus. When Mary and Joseph find Jesus in the Temple, they question Jesus and express their anxiety. Jesus replies in words that many have thought to be disrespectful. Jesus says that he was never lost; he was at home. Jesus is God's Son, and he is in his Father's house. In Luke's Gospel, Mary's importance is even greater than her role as Jesus' mother. Mary is the first disciple and will be present with Jesus' disciples after his Resurrection at Pentecost.
