REFLECTION: FEAST OF THE OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord is a day to reflect on the beginning of Jesus’ public ministry, the transition from the Christmas season to Ordinary Time, and the revelation of Jesus as God’s beloved son. Jesus’ baptism is a revelation of God and an epiphany that announces Jesus’ divinity. The story of Jesus’ baptism is told in all four Gospels: Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. It marks the beginning of Jesus’ public ministry. As we commemorate Jesus’ baptism, we celebrate the fact that our Christian baptism was the beginning of a new unity with the Holy Trinity. We also celebrate our oneness with God, which is renewed every time we make an interior act of repentance for our sins. Jesus’ baptism by John was a mystical experience that Jesus felt deep within his soul at the crucial turning point of his life. Through Baptism we become the adoptive sons and daughters of God, brothers and sisters of Jesus, members of his Church, heirs of Heaven and temples of the Holy Spirit.

St. Anthony Abbott

PRAY FOR US!

Saint Anthony, Abbot: Feast Day Friday January 17th, Saint Anthony died when he was one hundred and five years old. He lived a life of solitude, fasting, and manual labor in the service of God. He was a very spiritual person who believed in living the life of Jesus. Many men sought his guidance. Some were healed physically and many were comforted by his words and others stayed to learn from him. If we follow in his footsteps, we pray that we will be dependent on God for strength.

Every family has a unique identity that is defined by the behaviors, attitudes, and expectations that govern a family's daily life. This identity is influenced by the family history of the parents, but each family's expression of this history is unique. Today we learn that Jesus' behavior, attitudes, and expectations were governed by his identity as God's beloved Son. In our Baptism, we were made children of this same heavenly Father. Identify some of the expectations and behaviors that govern your family life by answering the question, "What are some of the things that make our family life unique?" Celebrate these things about your family life. Recall that at our Baptism we were made children of the same heavenly father. How does this identity as a member of the family of God govern and shape our family life?

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 42:1-4,6-7 Isaiah tells the people to prepare a way for the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: 29:1-2,3-4,9-10 A prayer praising God's greatness.

Second Reading: Acts of the Apostles 10:34-38 Jesus Christ saved us and renewed us with his Holy Spirit.

Gospel Reading: Luke 3:15-16,12-22 Jesus is baptized by John.

Today we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. In today's Gospel, as in the other Gospel accounts of Jesus' baptism, we hear John the Baptist address the confusion of the people who thought that John might be the Messiah. In response, John contrasts the baptism that he performs with the Baptism that Jesus will inaugurate. John the Baptist says that he has baptized with water, but that someone will come and baptize with the Holy Spirit. The type of baptism that John performed was not yet a Christian Baptism; it was a preparation for Christian Baptism through which sins are forgiven and the gift of the Holy Spirit is received. The Gospel of Mark and Luke report the story from Jesus' perspective; the voice from heaven is addressed to Jesus. Compare this to Matthew's Gospel in which the voice from heaven speaks to everyone. In Luke, however, the Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus during his time of prayer after his baptism. Through his Gospel, Luke will show Jesus to be a person of prayer who withdraws regularly from the crowds and his disciple to pray to his Father. The baptism of Jesus is considered a manifestation of God in Jesus, another "epiphany." On this, the last day of the Christmas season, our Gospel reveals to us Jesus' relation to God: the son of Mary and Joseph is also God's own Son. In Luke's Gospel, all three members of the Trinity are manifested here: God the Father in the voice, the Holy Spirit descending, and Jesus the Son. Luke is communicating to us important information about the identity of Jesus. In the verses that follow, Luke lists the genealogy of Jesus, tracing Jesus' ancestry back to the first person, Adam, who is also identified as the son of God.
