REFLECTION: THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

On the Third Sunday of Ordinary Time; toward the beginning of a new year, we are given again one of the fundamental truths of our Christian faith, namely that Jesus Christ is the definitive Good News of God to all the nations of the earth. If we ponder carefully the Gospel account this Sunday, we will discover the way to salvation, by recognizing in Jesus the fulfillment of the words of the Prophets of old, who longed for a redeemer. We Christians believe that redemption has come once and for all in the person Jesus Christ, True God and True Man. At the beginning of the Gospel passage, Saint Luke speaks of the “reliability of the instructions” being handed down to us. We then hear recounted the proclamation of Jesus in the synagogue of Nazareth: “The spirit of the Lord is upon me; therefore, he has anointed me. He has sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor, to proclaim liberty to the captives, recovery of sight to the blind and release to prisoners, to announce a year of favor from the Lord.”

Saint Angela Merici, Virgin and Religious Founder: Feast Day Monday January 27th, Saint Angela Merici was a virgin and the founder of the Ursuline Order, a religious community dedicated to the education of girls; she is recognized for establishing the “Company of Saint Ursula” where women lived in their own homes while dedicating themselves to the religious instruction of young girls. Angela received the gift of visions that inspired her to teach young girls about God.

Jesus was the one sent by God to bring salvation to the world. Jesus announced that mission using the framework we hear in today's Gospel from the prophet Isaiah: glad tidings will be brought to the poor, liberty to captives, recovery of sight for the blind, and freedom for the oppressed. Jesus inaugurates the Kingdom of God in his person through his life, death, and Resurrection. We are charged with the task of continuing the mission that Jesus began. Jesus set the framework for all of us when he announced his ministry in today's Gospel. Jesus also gave us the helper we would need to enable us to participate in his mission. The Holy Spirit has been given to us so that we, the Church, might serve the Kingdom of God. Make a family commitment to pray for the Kingdom of God and the that the Holy Spirit will intervene on your behalf.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Nehemiah 8:2-4a,5-6,8-10 Ezra reads from the book of the Law and interprets it for all to understand.

Responsorial Psalm: 19:8,9,10,15 A song in praise of the Law of the Lord.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:12-30 Paul explains that all were baptized into the one body of Christ.

Gospel Reading: Luke 1:1-4;4:14-21 In the synagogue at Nazareth, Jesus reads aloud from the scroll of the prophet Isaiah and announces that this Scripture is now fulfilled. This Gospel combines two separate passages taken from the Gospel of Luke. First we hear the opening verses where Luke establishes the purpose of his Gospel. His style is typical of polished Greek and Roman literature. In this passage, we learn that Luke may have written to a specific person, Theophilus; but the word Theophilus may also be a general reference, functioning as the phrase "Dear Reader" might in contemporary writing. In Greek, the word Theophilus translated as "lover of God." The reading then skips several chapters in which one would find the Infancy Narratives, Jesus' baptism by John, the temptations Jesus faced in the desert, and the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. In chapter four of Luke's Gospel, we hear that Jesus is in his hometown of Nazareth, attending the synagogue on the Sabbath, which is said to be his custom. In this account, we find another important clue that Jesus lived as a faithful, observant Jew. We will continue to read from Luke's Gospel in sequence for the next two Sundays. As Jesus stands in the synagogue, he reads from the scroll handed to him; it contains the words of the prophet Isaiah. In his ministry, Jesus announces his mission in continuity with Israel's prophetic tradition. This reading from Isaiah defines Jesus' ministry. We will find more evidence of this as we continue to read from Luke's Gospel throughout the year. Jesus' ministry will include bringing glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, healing to the sick, freedom to the oppressed, and proclaiming a year acceptable to the Lord. The Holy Spirit is Jesus' gift to the Church. The Holy Spirit enables the Church to continue the mission of Jesus.
