REFLECTION: FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time; teach us about holiness and discipleship through Peter’s encounter with Jesus. Peter, a fisherman, listens to Jesus and experiences a miraculous catch of fish. Despite feeling unworthy, Peter follows Jesus, leaving everything behind. This Gospel shows that growing in holiness requires saying yes to Jesus, working hard, and trusting God despite our imperfections. God calls us to follow Him and grow in our relationship with Him. These readings help us understand what we need to leave behind to follow Jesus. Just as the disciples left their nets, which symbolized their livelihood and security, we are called to let go of things that hinder our spiritual growth. These “nets” can be habits, possessions, or relationships that keep us from a closer relationship with Jesus. Reflect on what might be holding you back and consider how abandoning these things can help you follow Christ more fully. Saying yes to God’s call can lead to amazing blessings.

Our Lady of Lourdes: Feast Day Tuesday February 11th,

Our Lady of Lourdes is a title of the Blessed Virgin Mary recalling her apparitions in 1858 in the grotto at Lourdes, France to Saint Bernadette Soubirous, a fourteen year old peasant girl. Our Lady instructed Bernadette to dig in the ground nearby, from which came a spring with healing properties, active to this day. The spring has reported the recovery of people from various illnesses. The spring is a source of pilgrimage for people seeking healing.

FAMILY CONNECTION

In the people whom Jesus chose to be his closest friends, his disciples, we see many of the characteristic foibles of ordinary human beings. We also see the ways that God uses the gifts he gave us to transform us into new people, the agents through whom God will lead others to Jesus and to his kingdom. Lets consider the person Jesus chose to be a leader among the disciples and whom he sent to “catch people.” Based on the evidence found in Scripture, we can imagine what Peter must have been like: Peter seems unafraid to speak his mind, yet he is also able to take direction. In today’s Gospel Simon Peter lowers his nets as Jesus commands, but not before reminding Jesus that he and his partners have been fishing all night and haven’t caught anything. Why or why not? Do you consider Peter a good leader? Discuss with your family and pray.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 6:1-2a,3-8 Isaiah describes his vision and call from the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: 138:1-5,7-8 A song of thanks to God who saves us.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11 Paul reminds the Corinthians of the gospel that he announced to them.

Gospel Reading: Luke 5:1-11 The fisherman leave their fishing boats

In today’s Gospel, Jesus teaches from Simon’s boat. Jesus turns to Simon and instructs him about where to lower the fishing nets. Simon and others have been fishing throughout the night and have not caught anything. Simon protests, claiming that such effort would be futile. Simon ultimately obeys Jesus and lowers his nets into the deeper water as directed. Notice here that Peter calls Jesus by the title “master.” He already recognizes Jesus as a person of authority. They catch so many fish that the nets begin to tear; Jesus’ presence has created abundance out of scarcity, just as it did at the wedding feast at Cana. Simon Peter becomes a follower of Jesus immediately. He calls Jesus “Lord” the title given to Jesus after this Resurrection and protests his worthiness to be in Jesus’ presence. Therefore, marks a turning point in the relationship between Jesus and Peter. Two of Simon’s partners are also named as witnesses to the event described in today’s Gospel: Zebedee’s sons, James and John. Yet Jesus’ words are addressed only to Simon. Jesus gives Simon a new job, telling him that he will become a different fisherman. No longer will he catch fish’ instead he will catch people. In these words, we hear the beginning of the leadership role that Peter will have within the community of disciples. Peter was chosen for this role. His task will be to bring others to Jesus. Already he is doing so; the Gospel tells us that all the fishermen with Peter also left their nets and followed Jesus. We continue to speak of Peter’s leadership and influence in the Church today when we call the pope the “successor of Peter.” We participate in the mission of the Church when we bring people to Christ through the example and positive influence of our lives.
