Saint Joseph Spouse of The Blessed Virgin Mary: Feast Day Wednesday March 19th, Saint Joseph was the husband of the Virgin Mary and the legal Father of Jesus. He protected Mary from shame and took her as his wife after an Angel told him in a dream. He was betrothed to Mary but was unaware that she was carrying Jesus. He was a carpenter and a member of the Royal House of David. He cared for the Holy Family and taught Jesus his trade. He is the patron saint of Fathers and Workers.

REFLECTION: SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT: The Second Sunday of Lent focuses on how love in action can transform the lives of others. The story of Jesus’ Transfiguration is told in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke. The Transfiguration reminds us that we are reaching for eternity, not just Easter. The Transfiguration is an experience where Jesus’ Father identifies him as his beloved Son. Through baptism, we receive the same identity as Jesus did at his baptism. The readings encourage us to reflect on God’s promises, the call to live with our eyes on heaven, and the gift of faith. In the reading Genesis, God promises Abram that his descendants will be as countless as the stars. The readings also invite us to reflect on faith, transformation, and God’s promises. These themes help us to grow closer to God during Lent. God the Father tells the disciples to listen to His beloved Son. This emphasizes the importance of Jesus’ teachings and following His example. We are encouraged to listen to Jesus and live as citizens of heaven.

FAMILY CONNECTION

In today's Gospel, the voice from heaven speaks to the disciples saying, "Listen to him." The Transfiguration was a focused moment for the disciples when they heard God speaking to them and experienced Jesus in glory. They most certainly left this focused moment with a new appreciation for the importance of Jesus' words even if they did not yet understand everything that he had taught them. During Lent, we are invited to consider our attentiveness to Jesus and to one another. In the pace and noise that often characterizes family life, how well do we listen to one another? What opportunities do we have for quiet prayer. This season of Lent is very important to spend some quiet time with your family members asking God to help you listen well to one another and to Jesus.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Genesis 15:5-12,17-18 God makes a covenant with Abraham, promising him many descendants.

Responsorial Psalm: 27:1,7-8,8-9,13-14 A prayer to God who is our salvation.

Second Reading: Philippians 3:17-4:1 Paul encourages the Philippians to remain firm in their faith that Christ will subject all things to himself.

Gospel Reading: Luke 9:28b-36 Jesus is transfigured in the presence of Peter, John, and James.

On the second Sunday of Lent, we move from Jesus' retreat to the desert and temptation by the devil to the glory shown in Jesus' Transfiguration. The report of Jesus' Transfiguration is found in each of the Synoptic Gospel. The context for Lukes's Transfiguration story is similar to that found in both Matthew and Mark. The Transfiguration occurs after Peter's confession that Jesus is the Messiah and Jesus' prediction about his Passion. After the prediction there is a discussion of the cost of discipleship in each of these Gospels. The placement of the Transfiguration story close to Peter's confession and Jesus' prediction encourages us to examine the Transfiguration in the larger context of the Paschal Mystery. The Transfiguration occurs on a mountain in the presence of just three of Jesus' disciples; Peter, James and John. These are among the first disciples that Jesus called in Luke's Gospel. We recently heard this Gospel at Mass, on the fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Only Luke's Gospel, which often describes Jesus at prayer, indicates that Jesus is praying as his appearance changes to bright white. Luke indicates that the three disciples were sleeping while Jesus prayed. They will be sleeping again as Jesus prays in the Garden of Gethsemane before his Passion and death. As they awake, Peter and the disciples see Jesus Transfigured and Elijah and Moses present with Jesus. Elijah and Moses, both significant figures in the history of Israel, represent Jesus' continuity with Law and the Prophets. We hear this story of Jesus' Transfiguration early in Lent. In hearing of it, we anticipate Jesus' Resurrection even as we prepare to remember Jesus' Passion and death.
