Spiritual Meaning of Lent: Lent is a 40 day period of prayer, fasting and almsgiving that leads up to Easter. It’s a time of spiritual renewal and preparation to observe Good Friday and Easter. A time to remember Jesus’s sacrifice. He spent 40 days of fasting in the wilderness before beginning his ministry. Lent is time to prepare for the resurrection of Jesus on Easter. A time to develop a closer relationship with God through prayer. Lent emphasizes community and synodality.

REFLECTION: FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT: On the Fifth Sunday of Lent we are reminded to let go of our past mistakes and failures. We should not dwell on what we cannot change. Instead, we should focus on the new opportunities God is giving us. By trusting in His promise, we can move forward with hope and confidence in His plans for us. This Sunday we deepen our commitment to prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. These Lenten practices help us grow closer to God and prepare our hearts for Easter. Prayer allows us to spend time with God, seeking guidance and strength. Fasting teaches us self discipline and helps us focus on what truly matters. By letting go of distractions, we make more room for God in our lives. Almsgiving reminds us to care for others, especially those in need. Sharing our resources and time shows God’s love in action. It helps us move beyond ourselves and become more generous and compassionate. These practices will bring renewal to our hearts and help us to grow in our faith as we prepare to celebrate the joy of Easter.

There are few people that we know better than the members of our own family. We know one another's strengths and abilities, and we also know one another's limitations and weaknesses. Like the Pharisees, we may be tempted to focus on the faults and sins that familiarity with one another can sometimes reveal. As family members, however, we also have the ability to see one another's faults and sins within the context of the whole person. When we can keep this perspective, we are more likely to look upon one another with compassion. Family life, then, presents us the opportunity to see one another as God sees us, not with judgment and condemnation for our weaknesses and failing, but with mercy and compassion. Today's Gospel, Jesus refuses to focus on the sin of the woman brought to him for judgment.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 43:16-21 The Lord is doing something new for his people.

Responsorial Psalm: 126:1-6 A song in praise of the Lord's marvelous deeds.

Second Reading: Philippians 3:8-14 Paul says that he counts all things as lot and focuses on one goal, Christ.

Gospel Reading: John 8:1-11 Jesus does not condemn the woman caught in adultery.

The Gospel for the fifth Sunday of Lent continues to offer lessons about God's mercy and forgiveness. Today we hear not a parable, but the report from John's Gospel of an encounter among Jesus, the scribes and Pharisees, and a woman caught in adultery. Today's Gospel begins by reporting that Jesus is again teaching the crowds in the vicinity of the Temple. The scribes and Pharisees approach Jesus, bringing a woman who has been caught in the act of adultery. They put to Jesus the question of what ought to be done in this case. The Pharisees state clearly that according to the Law of Moses, those caught in the act of adultery were to be stoned to death. Jesus avoids the trap, however by offering an answer that was not anticipated by those who posed the question. Jesus, after writing on the ground with his finger, address those who stand before him and suggests that the one without sin cast the first stone. Jesus then returns to his writing. This Scripture reading, by the way, is the only evidence we have of Jesus writing. Yet there are no specific details about what he wrote. We can easily imagine the scene as the Pharisees and the elders disperse, one by one. Jesus has eluded the trap they had prepared. We might also give credit to the elders and the Pharisees who do not, in the end, claim to be sinless and worthy of passing judgment. These Pharisees are not as self righteous as the portrait found in the parable of the pharisee and the tax collector. Left alone with the woman, Jesus asks, where the accusers have gone. Leaving no one to condemn the woman, Jesus sends the woman on her way, refusing to pass judgment on her and exhorting her to avoid future sin. As sinners, we are all unworthy to judge the sins of others.
