REFLECTION: PALM SUNDAY THE PASSION OF

THE LORD: Palm Sunday, marking the beginning of Holy Week, commemorates Jesus’ triumphant entry into Jerusalem, a day of both joyful welcome and foreshadowing of his suffering and death, prompting reflection on our own journey of faith and sacrifice. Jesus was greeted by crowds waving palm branches and shouting “Hosanna”. While the crowds initially celebrated Jesus, the events of Holy week reveal the path of suffering and sacrifice that awaited him, leading to his crucifixion. Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem on a donkey, rather than a horse, symbolizes humility and his willingness to serve, setting the stage for his ultimate sacrifice for humanity. Palm Sunday reminds us of the importance of faith and hope, even in the face of adversity, as Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem was a testament to his mission and the promise of salvation. As we celebrate Palm Sunday, consider how we can follow Jesus’ example of humility, sacrifice, and love, and to trust in God’s plan for our lives, even in times of trial.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Palm Sunday, also called Passion Sunday, marks the beginning of Holy Week. During this week, we prepare ourselves for Easter by prayerful reflection upon the events of Jesus’ passion and death. During this week, your family might display a crucifix in a prominent place as a reminder of salvation Christ won for us. This can also serve as the focal point for family prayer during Holy Week. Families can make it a tradition to read a portion of this Sunday’s Gospel each day of Holy Week, providing ample opportunity for children to ask questions and respond to the events described there. In this way, the entire week can become a “way of the cross.” Each day during Holy Week, the family can gather in a prayerful space with a crucifix as its focal point. The passion as found in Luke’s Gospel might be read throughout the week.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7 The Lord’s Servant will stand firm, even when persecuted
Responsorial Psalm: 22:8-9,17-20,23-24 A cry for help to the Lord in the face of evildoers.
Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11 Christ was obedient even to death, but God has exalted him.
Gospel Reading: Luke 22:14-23:56 23:1-49 From the cross, Jesus speaks words of forgiveness and promises that the good thief will be with him in paradise.
 This Sunday, called Palm or Passion Sunday, is the first day of Holy Week. Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday are called the Triduum, three days that are the highlight of the Church year. There are two Gospels proclaimed at today’s Mass. The first Gospel, proclaimed before the procession with palms, tells of Jesus’ triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. Riding on a borrowed colt, Jesus hailed by the crowds as they shouted blessings and praise to God. This event is reported in each of the four Gospels. Luke’s Gospel is the only one to report the exchange between Jesus and the Pharisees as Jesus enters Jerusalem. Jesus’ response shows that this event, and those yet to come are part of a divine plan. We hear this echoed again in Luke’s description of the Last Supper when Jesus speaks of Judas’ betrayal, saying that the Son of Man “goes as has been determined.” At the Liturgy of the Word on this Sunday, the events of Jesus’ passion are proclaimed in their entirety. We will hear these events proclaimed again during the Triduum when we read the passion of Jesus from the Gospel of John. Throughout Luke’s Gospel we see that Jesus’ words and actions proclaim the Kingdom of God. This motif continues throughout Luke’s passion narrative. Jesus appears to be in total command of events at the Passover meal as he hands over the kingdom to his disciples. He welcomes them to the Passover meal announcing that this will be his last until the Kingdom of God is fulfilled. Throughout Holy Week, we will continue to reflect on the events of Jesus’ passion and death. Jesus, in full command until his death, commends his spirit to his Father.
