REFLECTION: EASTER SUNDAY-The Resurrection of the Lord: On this Easter Sunday, we celebrate Christ's resurrection, a testament to hope and new life, reminding us that even in the face of darkness, there is always the promise of a brighter dawn. Easter Sunday marks the culmination of Holy Week, commemorating Jesus's crucifixion and his subsequent resurrection, a pivotal event in Christian faith. The resurrection of Jesus offers hope and a promise of eternal life for those who believe. It signifies a victory over sin and death, and a chance for renewal and transformation. We are called to live lives that reflect the joy and hope of the resurrection, sharing the good news of Jesus's love and grace with others. We can reflect on the sacrifice Jesus made for us, and how his love and forgiveness can help us to overcome our own struggles. The Easter story reminds us that in the darkest of times, there is always hope because Jesus is alive. Let's strive to be people of hope, love, and compassion, mirroring the transformative power of the risen Christ in our daily lives.

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord: April 20th He said, "I am the Resurrection and the Life; the one who believes in Me will live, even if he dies, and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die". This may seem like a contradiction, but Jesus was referring to two kinds of death. For believers, physical death is simply a door to heaven. Praying your Easter will be Bright with the Hope and Joy of Our Risen Savior. Wishing you a Happy and Blessed Easter.

In the Easter Gospel we hear about how the disciples found the tomb empty three days after Jesus' death. We are also told that they do not yet understand the Scriptures or that Jesus had been raised from the dead. That understanding gradually unfolded for the disciples as they began to experience the risen Lord. Similarly, our understanding of Jesus' Resurrection unfolds for us throughout our lives. In the weeks ahead, we will hear how the first disciple moved from confusion, doubt, and skepticism to faith. Their experience can teach us how we too might receive this gift of faith from God. Gather your family members and ask them to share what they know about the events that happened in the days after Jesus' crucifixion. Invite your family to imagine that they are among Jesus' first disciples. Pray together as a family.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 10:34a,37-43 Peter preaches about Jesus' life, death, and resurrection.

Responsorial Psalm: 118:1-2,16-17,22-23 Rejoice in this day of the Lord.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4 Colossians: Having been raised by Christ, be concerned with what is above.

Gospel Reading: John 20:1-9 Mary of Magdala finds that the stone has been removed from Jesus' tomb.

Today we begin the Easter Season, our 50 day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. Today the Gospel tells us about the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb. It concludes by telling us that they did not yet understand that Jesus has risen from the dead. Thus, the details provided are not necessarily meant to offer proof of the Resurrection. The details invite us to reflect upon a most amazing gift, that is faith in Jesus and his Resurrection. Each of the four Gospels tells us that Jesus' empty tomb was first discovered by women. This is notable because in first century Jewish society women could not serve as legal witnesses. In the case of John's Gospel, the only women attending the tomb is Mary of Magdala. Unlike the Synoptic accounts, John's Gospel does not describe and appearance of angels at the tomb. Instead, Mary is simply said to have observed that the stone that had sealed the tomb had been moved, and she runs to alert Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. She assumes that Jesus' body has been removed, perhaps stolen. She does not consider that Jesus has been raised from the dead. Simon Peter and the beloved disciple race to the tomb, presumably to verify Mary's report. The beloved disciple arrives first but does not enter the tomb until after Simon Peter. This detail paints a vivid picture, as does the detail provided about the burial cloths. Some scholars believe that the presence of the burial cloths in the tomb offers evidence to the listener that Jesus' body had not been stolen; grave robbers would have taken the burial cloths together with the body. The Gospel concludes, however, that even having seen the empty tomb and the burial cloths, the disciples do not yet understand about the Resurrection.
