REFLECTION: FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER: The 4th Sunday of Easter, also known as Good Shepherd Sunday, focuses on Jesus’ role as the Good Shepherd, who knows and loves his sheep, and leads them to eternal life. This reflection invites us to consider our relationship with Jesus and how we listen to this voice, following him as our shepherd. The Gospel reading highlights Jesus’ promise of eternal life to those who follow him. It also, emphasizes Jesus’ role as the Good Shepherd, who knows his sheep and lays down his life for them. The reflection encourages us to recognize Jesus’ voice amidst the noise of the world and to follow his guidance. Jesus’ promise of eternal life to those who follow him is a central theme of the Gospel reading. It also invites us to examine our relationship with Jesus and how we respond to his love and guidance. The reading also encourages us to reflect on humility and service to others, following by Jesus’ example. We must always remember that Jesus is our Shepherd. He knows us, loves us, and calls us to follow him.

Honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary and Mother’s in May: Mothers Day May 11th In Catholicism, Mother’s Day is a time to honor both earthly mothers and Mary, the Mother of God. The holiday is celebrated the second Sunday of May. Catholics view Mary as the spiritual mother of the Church and recognize her as the ultimate model of motherhood. May God Bless all Mother’s on this Special Day.
Happy Mothers' Day!

Not only can we recognize family members voices, we can also read the tone of their voices and know something about how they are feeling. In our relationship with Jesus, we know Jesus' voice and are called to follow. Jesus doesn't just bring us closer to the Father, Jesus puts us directly into contact with God the Father, removing all distance between us. In the Gospel of John, Jesus identifies so closely with the Father that he tells us that they are one, not just close, but actually one. Knowing Jesus means knowing the Father. Ask your family members to talk about some ways that Jesus brings them closer to God and closer to one another. Pray together as a family the Acts of Faith. When we share eternal life, we will be closer to God as well. We will see God as he is and share fully in the life of God.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 13:14,43-52 Paul and Barnabas preach the good news among the Gentiles and are expelled by the Jews.

Responsorial Psalm: 100:-2,3,5 A song in praise of God who shepherds us.

Second Reading: Revelation 7:9,14b-17 John describes his vision of the praises that the holy ones sing to the Lamb.

Gospel Reading: John 10:27-30 Jesus describes his care for his sheep.

The fourth Sunday of Easter is also called Good Shepherd Sunday. In each of the three lectionary cycles, the Gospel is taken from the tenth chapter of the Gospel of John. This Gospel follows Jesus' healing of the man born blind and the rejection of this miracle by Jewish leaders who question Jesus' authority to heal. Jesus responds to this challenge to his authority by calling himself the Good Shepherd. He is criticizing the Pharisees and other Jewish leaders. Already the Pharisees and other Jewish leaders are so angered that they attempt to stone and arrest Jesus. Set in a moment of tension and conflict in today's Gospel reading is Jesus' answer to the question, "Are you the Messiah?" Jesus responds by saying, in essence, "If you have to ask, then you are not one of my sheep." Then Jesus asserts his unity with the Father. At the conclusion of these words, John reports that the Jews intend to stone Jesus for blasphemy, but he escapes arrest. We may be less familiar with the metaphors of sheep and shepherd than those to whom Jesus spoke. The image of Jesus as Good Shepherd and the community of followers as his sheep has endured over the centuries as a primary image in our faith tradition. Its power to describe the relationship between Jesus and his followers transcends direct experience with sheep. The image speaks to us about the protection, security, and care that shepherds represent for their sheep. To know Jesus is to know the Father. Jesus doesn't just bring us closer to the Father, Jesus puts us directly into contact with God the Father, removing all distance between us. Our relationship with Jesus is an invitation to share in the life of God.
