Saint Christopher Magallanes and Companions: Feast Day Wednesday May 21st. St. Christopher, along with 21 other priests and 3 lay companions, were martyred between 1915-1937, throughout eight Mexican states, for their membership in the Cristero. The last words heard from him in his cell, "I am innocent and I die innocent. I forgive with all my heart those responsible for my death, and I ask God that my death serve the peace of our divided Mexico."

REFLECTION: FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER: The 5th Sunday of Easter, focuses on the call to love one another, as exemplified by Jesus, and the promise of a new heaven and earth. The gospel highlights Jesus' new commandment: "As I have loved you, so you should also love one another". This love is not just a feeling, but a way of life, shown in actions and service to others. The second reading speaks of a new creation, a promise of hope and renewal, where God will wipe away every tear and make all things new. The 2nd reading paints a picture of a new creation, a new heaven and earth where God will dwell with humanity. This vision of a new reality offers hope and a promise of overcoming suffering, pain, and death. The readings highlight the connection between love and the promise of a new creation. Loving one another, as Jesus loved us, is a way of participating in God's work of making all things new in the present moment. By showing love, we are not only living out the commandment, but also working towards the new heaven and earth.

Loving Hearts

John 13:31-35

FAMILY CONNECTION

Is love the first word your family members use to describe their interactions? Love is difficult. Jesus' sacrifice for us is an example of this. Yet because of love, the glory of God is fully revealed in Jesus. God's glory is revealed in us when we act as the Body of Christ, as individuals and as a community. In the love we have for one another difficult, challenging, sacrificial love we find Jesus. Choose one or two occasions when your family was together during the week. Describe the family's interactions from an outsider's perspective. When is it less difficult to show love to family members? When is it more difficult? When love is difficult, what do we do? Jesus didn't just tell us to love one another. He showed us how to love one another. In what ways did Jesus show us how to love? (acts of healing, Eucharist, death on the cross...)

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 14:21-27 Paul and Barnabas proclaim the good news in many places.

Responsorial Psalm: 145: 8-9,10-11,12-13 A song of praise to God.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:1-5a John describes his vision of a new heaven and a new earth.

Gospel Reading: John 13:31-33a,34-35 Jesus gives his disciples a new commandment: love one another.

Today's Gospel again comes from the Gospel of John. Like last week, today we hear words spoken by Jesus before his death and Resurrection. Jesus is teaching at the Last Supper. John's Gospel does not include an institution of the Eucharist narrative; instead, Jesus washes his disciples' feet. Immediately after, Jesus predicts his betrayal by Judas.

Today's Gospel follows that prediction. It can be read as a continuing explanation of Jesus' act of washing his disciples' feet. It begins with the announcement that this is the moment when the Son of Man will be glorified. This then continues throughout John's Passion. Jesus will be glorified in his death on the cross and in his Resurrection, and the disciples will glorify Jesus in the love they show. John's Gospel does not present a sentimental view of love. This is a type of love that is shown in service and sacrifice. It is difficult to choose to love when faced with hatred and anger. Jesus tells the disciples that all will know that they are his disciples because of the love they show for one another. This description of the early Christian community will be repeated in the Acts: "See how they love one another." Christian love is the hallmark of Christianity. We see it lived in the witness of the martyrs. We see it in the example of the lives of the saints. We see it in the holy women and men who live and love daily. Making small and large sacrifices for others. Children learn by example, Jesus not only talked about love, he gave us his life as an example to show us how to love. The Gospel this week tells us that before Jesus dies, he told his friends to love one another the way he had shown them how to love. One way, Jesus showed love was by washing the feet of his disciples'.
