The Ascension of the Lord: Feast Day Thursday May 29th, The Ascension of the Lord is a major Christian holiday, celebrated 40 days after Easter, commemorating Jesus' bodily ascension into heaven. It marks the end of his earthly ministry and the beginning of his reign in heaven. It also symbolizes the hope of believers to join Christ in heaven. Traditionally, it falls on the sixth Thursday after Easter but is observed on the seventh Sunday of Easter.

REFLECTION: SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER: The 6th Sunday of Easter, emphasizes Jesus' promise to send the Holy Spirit, a guide and advocate, after his return to the Father. This reflection focuses on the importance of love and the Holy Spirit's role in guiding believers on their journey to eternal union with the Trinity. The Gospel passage highlights that loving God and keeping His word are the key to the Trinity dwelling within us. Jesus promises to send the Holy Spirit to guide, teach, and remind believers, ensuring they are never truly alone. Demonstrating love for Christ through faith, hope, and love (the theological virtues) is crucial for experiencing God's love and dwelling with Him. By loving God and keeping His word, the Trinity can come and dwell within us, bringing peace and union. The second reading offers a vision of the heavenly Jerusalem, where all who have passed from life to God's glory are united with the Holy Trinity. The readings encourage reflection on love, the Holy Spirit, and the promise of eternal union with the Trinity.

Loving Hearts

John 13:31-35

FAMILY CONNECTION

Parents are always helping their children prepare for something whether that consists of getting ready for school, preparing for an exam, or making preparations to go on vacation. In today's Gospel Jesus prepares his disciples for his Passion, Death, and Resurrection. He promises his Holy Spirit, gives them the gift of his peace, and tells them not to be troubled. As a family, talk about the kinds of events that you have prepared for together; surgeries, funerals, vacations, and first days of school are some examples. Talk about why it is important to prepare for important events in our lives. Then read today's Gospel and talk about how Jesus prepared his disciples for his Death and Resurrection and how he wanted them to be prepared for what would happen so that they would be able to believe.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 15:1-2,22-29 The early Church community determines, with the help of the Holy Spirit, not to impose the requirement of circumcision on Gentile Christians.

Responsorial Psalm: 67:2-3,5,6,8 A prayer that all the nations sing praise to God.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:10-14,22-23 The vision of the splendor of the heavenly Jerusalem is described.

Gospel Reading: John 14:23-29 Jesus promises his disciples that the Father will send the Advocate, the Holy Spirit. This portion of John's Gospel comes near the end of the first of four chapters that make up Jesus' long farewell discourse at the Last Supper. This Gospel actually sums up the themes of the opening of the discourse: the Christian's life is not shaped by Jesus' absence but by God's abiding presence; God's presence overcomes anxiety about God's absence; and the present holds in it the seeds of a fresh future shaped by love, not fear. These verses also contain a glimpse of some of the other themes of the farewell discourse: Jesus' relationship with the Father and the disciples' relationship to Jesus connect the disciples to the Father as well. Jesus promises to send an Advocate or intercessor who will remind the disciples of everything that Jesus taught them and bring them peace. Jesus is preparing his disciples in advance for his absence so that they will continue to believe in him and not feel all alone after his return to the Father. After the initial excitement of his Easter appearances, Jesus will remain with his followers in a very different way throughout the centuries. For most of us, peace is understood as the absence of conflict. We long for "peace and quiet." Jesus gives us the gift of peace but not as the world gives peace. The peace of Christ is that state of being that exists when heaven and earth (God's will and our lives) connect in our hearts. As our celebration of the Easter season is coming to an end, the liturgy reminds us that Jesus remains with us through the Holy Spirit, who teaches us everything we need to know, reminds us of all that Jesus taught, and brings us peace.
