St. Charles Lwanga and Companions, Martyrs: Feast Day Tuesday June 3rd, These martyrs of Uganda were a group of Christians who were executed between 1885 and 1887, under the reign of King Mwanga II of the Buganda Kingdom, which is part of modern day Uganda. Their martyrdom is a profound testament to their unyielding faith in Christ amid severe persecution. He is the patron saint of bishops, cardinals, seminarians, spiritual leaders, catechists, and catechumens.

REFLECTION: THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD:

Also known as Ascension Day or Ascension Sunday, is a major Christian feast commemorating Jesus' bodily ascent into Heaven 40 days after his resurrection. It marks the completion of his earthly mission and his reign in glory. The Ascension signifies Jesus' return to his pre-existing state in Heaven, as God and as the glorified, resurrected Christ. It marks the end of Jesus' visible presence among humanity and the beginning of his reign in heaven. The Ascension is seen as the beginning of the Church's mission to spread the Gospel, with Jesus empowering his followers through the Holy Spirit. The Ascension offers a promise of eternal life for those who believe in Jesus. It's celebrated 40 days after Easter Sunday, traditionally on a Thursday, the sixth week of Easter.. In many dioceses this day has been moved to the following Sunday. In essence, the Ascension of the Lord is a celebration of Jesus' glorified humanity and his ongoing presence in the lives of believers, even though he is now in heaven.

Any family that has tried to sit down to a family dinner or packed the car for a trip has heard children argue at least once about who should sit where. To sit next to someone, especially if that person is important, is to have a place of honor. Jesus has this place of honor, seated now at the right hand of the Father. There's more to this metaphor than where Jesus sits in relation to God. To be in the place of honor is also to be in a place of power. Knowing people in powerful places can be very helpful. Children remind us of this each time we are called upon to referee a conflict. Jesus, honored now at God's right hand, is a powerful ally for us. As you gather as a family, recall a time when there was a discussion, or perhaps even an argument, about where people were going to sit; talk about the importance of the seating arrangement.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 1:1-11 Jesus is taken up to heaven in the presence of the Apostles.

Responsorial Psalm: 47:2-3,6-9 Sing praise to God as he mounts his throne.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:17-23 God raised Jesus from the dead and seated him at his right hand.

Gospel Reading: Luke 24:46-53 Jesus is taken to heaven and the disciples remain in Jerusalem awaiting his sending of the Spirit.

Today is our liturgical celebration of the Ascension of the Lord, when Jesus is taken to heaven on the 40th day after Easter. Our Gospel is taken from the conclusion of the Gospel of Luke. There are similarities in the reports of Jesus' Ascension found in the Synoptic Gospels; Mark, Matthew, and Luke. In each account, Jesus assigns his disciples the task of proclaiming the Gospel to the entire world. There are also notable distinctions. In the Gospels of Mark and Matthew, the disciples are sent by Jesus to baptize as well as to preach. In Luke's Gospel, however, this commission to baptize is absent. Instead, Jesus directs the disciples to return to Jerusalem to await the fulfillment of his promise to send them the Holy Spirit. Curiously, only Mark and Luke actually report Jesus' Ascension into heaven. Matthew's Gospel concludes with Jesus' Ascension into heaven. Matthew's Gospel concludes with Jesus' promise to remain with his disciples forever. Only the Gospel of Mark notes that Jesus ascended to sit at the right hand of God. In noting this, Mark teaches that Jesus' Ascension affirms the glory Jesus received from God after his death and Resurrection. Those who believe in Jesus will be empowered to do what Jesus himself had done. Already in Mark's Gospel, during his ministry, Jesus sent his disciples out to preach, to heal, and to drive out unclean spirits. Now, they are sent again to do these things and more. From his place with God in heaven, Jesus helped his disciples, and he continues to help us as we try to live as his followers. Disciples throughout the centuries have followed Jesus' instruction to preach his Gospel to all the nations.
