The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus: Feast Day Friday June 27th, The most Sacred Heart of Jesus recalls Christ's love for us. The Heart is the symbol of human love. This devotion honors the Sacred Heart of Our Lord, through which was manifested to us by God's eternal love for everyone. God is Love; and so in honoring the human expression of that Love, especially on the Cross, we honor its Divine source. The Sacred Heart has given us everything; redemption, salvation, and sanctification.

REFLECTION: THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD

OF CHRIST: The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is the living bread from heaven which he gave to us during the last supper. When we eat this bread, we proclaim the Lord's death and resurrection until he comes again. The assurance of Jesus to us is that if we live our lives following God's will and receive Jesus as our bread of life, we will be with God forever. In the Holy Eucharist and through our Baptism, Jesus takes up residence within each one of us. We become the very presence of Christ in our world. We carry Him into the real world every time we receive communion. We proclaim that the Lord continues to come into the world, through us. We are the Body of Christ. Every time there is a Eucharistic celebration, the Body of Christ is made accessible and available to us. We celebrate the Eucharist as a community of faith, hope, and love. It's not just a memorial celebration but an experience of God's love. What an awesome gift we have in Jesus. His farewell gift that he will be with us until the end of time.

FAMILY CONNECTION

In our age of fast food and eating on the go. Families often find that they are not eating meals together at a dinner table. As a family, look back over the past week and recall how many meals were eaten together and how many were alone or on the run. In the Bible, meals are seen as much more than a means to satisfy a physical need. The Hebrew's viewed eating a meal as a way of strengthening their relationship to one another under God's covenant. Meals were often the setting of Jesus' teaching and miracles in the Gospels. Talk about the kinds of hungers that people have in addition to physical hunger. Describe the hungers that a family nourishes; love, compassion, forgiveness, laughter, and so on. Give thanks as we celebrate the feast of the Body and Blood of Jesus.

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. Parishioners are asked to include first name, last name, envelope number, and your mailing address on any envelope that is not provided by the Parish. Thank you for your continued support.

UNLESS YOU ARE A SCHEDULED MINISTER FOR THE WEEKEND, Father Frank has asked that everyone stay out of the Sacristy. This is to protect Father, Monsignor and the Deacons or Ministers that are scheduled to be present in the Sacristy before or after Mass.

WEAR A MASK IF YOU ARE SICK: If you are serving at the Altar; (Deacon, Acolyte, Lector, Cantor, EM, or any Server). The ASF has given the Parish Priest the discretion to mandate their own SICK & COVID-19 Policies.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20 Melchizedek, king of Salem, blessed Abram.

Responsorial Psalm: 110:1-4 You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26 As often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.

Gospel Reading: Luke 9:11b-17 They all ate and were satisfied.

Today, the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate a second solemnity which marks our return to Ordinary Time. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, Latin, for "the Body of Christ." In the most recent revision of the liturgy, the name for this day is expanded to be a more complete reflection of our Eucharistic theology. The feeding of the 5,000 is the only one of Jesus' miracles to appear in all four Gospels. Luke places it between Herod's question, "Who is this about whom I hear such things?" and Peter's response to Jesus' question about who he thought Jesus was; "You are the Messiah of God." In Luke the feeding is not the result of Jesus' compassion for the crowd but is instigated by the disciples. They wanted Jesus to send the crowd away to town. Instead Jesus tells the disciples to give them some food on their own. The passage is meant to remind us of two feedings in the Old Testament; the feeding of the Israelites in the desert and Elisha's feeding of 100 people with 20 loaves in 2 Kings 4:42-44. It is also connected to the institution of the Eucharist. As in the Last Supper accounts in Matthew, Mark, and Luke and Paul's account in 1 Corinthians 11:23-24, Jesus takes bread, looks up to heaven, blesses the bread, breaks it, and gives it to the disciples. In using this exact language, Luke is reminding his readers that in this miracle Jesus is doing more than feeding hungry people as God did for the Israelites and the prophet Elisha did as well. The bread he gives is his body, which he will continue to give as often as the community breaks bread in remembrance of him in the Eucharist.
