REFLECTION: SAINTS PETER AND PAUL THE APOSTLES:

These two Saints are celebrated on the same day because Jesus founded his church on Saint Peter and Saint Paul was the greatest evangelist in the history of the church. These two saints were very different from each other. Each of the two Apostles had a different mission, but together they built up the church that Jesus Christ founded. We owe our Christian faith in a large part due to them. We have personally benefited from their efforts, so it is very fitting that we honor them today. Peter was chained up in prison with two times the normal restraints given to other prisoners, and twice the guards as well. It was the night before his trial before King Herod. Everyone was asleep in the dead of the night, when suddenly an angel appeared in Peter's cell. He woke him up and told him to get up quickly, and put on his belt and sandals. Peter thought he was dreaming or seeing a vision until after the angel led him past all of the sleeping guards. Then the iron gate opened all by itself leading them toward their freedom.

Saint Thomas, Apostle: Feast Day

Thursday July 3rd, Saint Thomas was a close follower of Jesus and one of the twelve disciples. He was famous for his skepticism and need for physical proof of Jesus' resurrection, famously known as "Doubting Thomas". Despite his initial doubts, After seeing the resurrected Jesus and touching his wounds. Thomas exclaimed, "My Lord and My God!". Thomas is also celebrated for his later zeal and missionary work, particularly in India.

In today's Gospel, Jesus refers to Peter as "Rock" and says that the Church will be built upon him. We refer to someone as a "rock" when they are very reliable. Talk as a family about who has been and is a rock in your extended family. The Gospel reminds us that the Church is built on the foundation of faith in Jesus Christ. It is faith that makes Peter the Rock upon which the Church is built. The Family, as the domestic church, has this same faith as its foundation. Talk about people whose faith has helped you to be a member of the Church and talk about what you have learned from leaders in our Church today. As a family talk about what you know about Peter and his importance to the early Christian community. Conclude in prayer together as a family.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 12:1-11 Now I know it is indeed true: the Lord has saved me from the power of Herod.

Responsorial Psalm: 34:2-9 The angel of the Lord will rescue those who fear him.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 4:6-8,17-18 As often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 16:13-19 You are Peter: and I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of heaven.

Mark places this incident at Caesarea Philippi. Luke, because of the importance he wishes to give to prayer in his Gospel, places it in the context of Jesus praying. But Matthew keeps it at Caesarea Philippi. In Today's Gospel, Jesus asks the disciples for a "field report" by asking what people are saying about him. He refers to himself as the Son of Man, a term derived from the Jewish Scriptures, found in the book of Daniel and in other apocryphal writings. Many scholars suggest that "Son of Man" is best understood to mean "human being." As Jesus turns the question directly to the disciples and asks what they believe, Peter speaks for all of them when he announces that they believe Jesus to be the Christ. "Christ" is the Greek translation of the Hebrew word for "messiah," which means "the anointed one." At the time of Jesus, the image of the "messiah" was laden with popular expectations, most of which looked for a political leader who would free the Jewish people from Roman occupation. Because Jesus referred to himself a number of times in Matthew by Christological titles this moment is not the revelation of who Jesus is as in Mark. Instead it marks an important moment in the development of the Church. Jesus uses this occasion to bless Peter, who represents all the disciples but also has a unique role to play in the founding of the new community. Peter is blessed not because of a personal insight but because God revealed to him who Jesus is. Peter is the rock on which Jesus will build the Church. Peter played an important role in the early Christian community and helped to build the Church. This was a role given to him by God.
