Saint Benedict, Abbot: Feast Day Friday July 11th, Saint Benedict taught us that the key to living a rich, full, and useful human life is to keep our eyes fixed on the things of God. St. Benedict teaches us that all work has value and brings dignity to each human being. He was known to work many miracles using the power of the Holy Cross. These included his heroic flight from temptations and miraculous escapes from traps set to kill him. He became known for his power over the devil.

REFLECTION: FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: These reading invites us to reflect on themes of peace, joy, and discipleship. The remind us of God's blessings, our call to share the Gospel, and the hope we find in Christ. Isaiah speaks of rejoicing in God's care, showing how He comforts His people. We must trust in His love and rejoice in His blessings. The readings highlight God's gift of peace. Jesus tells His disciples to bring peace whenever they go, showing that peace is central to Christian life. Isaiah shows how God takes care of His people like a mother caring for her child. This reminds us to trust that God provides for all our needs. Paul reminds us to glory only in the Cross of Christ. The Cross is a sign of God's love and the source of our salvation. Jesus sends His followers out in pairs to share the Good News. We are called to work together to spread God's message. Jesus tells His disciples to rejoice because their names are written in heaven. This reminds us that our ultimate joy is in eternal life with God.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Families teach a sense of togetherness and community. It is in the family that we learn that we are dependent on one another and where we learn to work together and live together. In this Sunday’s Gospel, Jesus sends out the 72 disciples in pairs, a sign that we are to work together to serve the mission of the Kingdom of God. Talk about all the ways that your family works together. Talk about the various chores and tasks that family members work together to accomplish in order to keep the household running smoothly. Talk about why it was important that Jesus sent his disciples out in pairs. Discuss ways that your family can work more closely together to support one another and to make the household run more smoothly. Pray for strength to work together as a family.

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. Parishioners are asked to include first name, last name, envelope number, and your mailing address on any envelope that is not provided by the Parish. Thank you for your continued support.

UNLESS YOU ARE A SCHEDULED MINISTER FOR THE WEEKEND, Father Frank has asked that everyone stay out of the Sacristy. This is to protect Father, Monsignor and the Deacons or Ministers that are scheduled to be present in the Sacristy before or after Mass.

WEAR A MASK IF YOU ARE SICK: If you are serving at the Altar; (Deacon, Acolyte, Lector, Cantor, EM, or any Server). The ASF has given the Parish Priest the discretion to mandate their own SICK & COVID-19 Policies.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK every third weekend of the Month. In Nambe Pueblo, Nambe & Pojoaque; after the celebration of the Mass. In El Rancho; before the Mass.

BLESSED SACRAMENT ADORATION August 1st
Please come and spend one hour with Jesus! My sweetest Joy is to be in the presence of Jesus in the Holy Sacrament. I beg that when obliged to withdraw in body, I may leave my heart before the Holy Sacrament. How I would miss out Lord, if He were to be away from me by His Presence in the Sacrament!

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 66:10-14c I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river.

Responsorial Psalm: 123:1-4 Our eyes are fixed on the Lord.
Second Reading: Galatians 6:14-18 May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Reading: Luke 10:1-12,17-20 Jesus sends out 72 people to announce the coming kingdom.

Today’s Gospel begins immediately after the final verse in Last Sunday’s Gospel. After strong language about the difficulties of discipleship, Jesus immediately appoints 72 people to go ahead of him to every town and place he plans to visit, proclaiming that the Kingdom of God is at hand. He sends them in pairs. In the Law of Moses two witnesses were needed for a testimony to be credible. It was probably also a safer way to travel. Jesus admits it will be difficult, that he is sending them out like lambs among wolves. Yet they are to bring nothing with them, not even a money bag or sandals. They are to greet no one on the way so as not to be distracted from their mission. When they enter a house, their message is simply “peace.” The response they will receive may be positive or negative. Either way, they are to know that the Kingdom of God is at hand. They are not to demand special treatment but eat and drink whatever is given them. They are to stay in one house and are not to look around for one that provides better accommodations. They are to heal the sick as a sign that the Kingdom of God is at hand for them. Like Jesus’ miracles, healing is a sign of the coming of the kingdom. If the town will not receive them, they are to shake the dust from their feet and move on. Even in the case of such rejection they should know that Kingdom of God is at hand. When they return from their journeys, they are rejoicing because their mission has been successful. Demons were under their power because of Jesus’ name. Jesus may have sent them out as lambs among wolves, but at the conclusion of this passage he assures them that they have been given power over the enemy and nothing will harm them, not even serpents and scorpions. The key theme of today’s Gospel is discipleship.
