Saint Mary Magdalene, Feast Day
Tuesday July 22nd, St. Mary Magdalene is primarily known for her role as a close follower of Jesus Christ and as the first witness to his resurrection. She was a woman of means, supporting Jesus's ministry. She is also known for being healed of seven demons by Jesus. She is a significant figure in the New Testament, mentioned multiple times in the Gospels. Jesus loved her unconditionally. He loved her for who she was and not for her beauty.

REFLECTION: SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN

ORDINARY TIME: The 19th Sunday, emphasizes the importance of balancing active service with contemplative prayer, drawing from the Gospel story of Martha and Mary. It highlights that while good works are vital, they should be rooted in a relationship with God and nourished by time spent in His presence. The readings encourage Christians to be hospitable, welcoming, and to prioritize seeking God's guidance before and during service. This story underscores that while service to others is important, it should not overshadow the need for spiritual nourishment and a personal relationship with God. It reminds us find time for prayer, reflection, and listening to God's word, just as Mary did. The readings emphasize the importance of hospitality, mirroring how Jesus is present in our lives, even in unexpected ways. We are called to be welcoming and compassionate, recognizing God in the faces of those we encounter. The story of Martha and Mary also highlights discipleship.

FAMILY CONNECTION

In our families and homes, we have boundaries. Some are geographical; we may have our own room or part of a room that we want others to stay out of. Parents may have home offices that are off limits to children. Some boundaries are behavioral; children may speak one way to their friends, but they are not allowed to speak the same way to their parents or other adults. A Curfew is another type of boundary, whose purpose is to protect children's safety. Talk about examples of boundaries in your family. For the most part, these boundaries are good. Talk about how sometimes we set up boundaries for the wrong reasons. For example, if we are angry with a sibling, we may draw a line and tell him or her to stay on his or her side. No boundaries should separate us.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Genesis 18:1-10a Abraham entertains three strangers and is promised a son.

Responsorial Psalm: 15:2-5 Those who do justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:24-28 The mystery hidden from ages past has now been revealed in Christ.

Gospel Reading: Luke 10:38-42 Jesus visits the house of Martha and Mary.

The story of Jesus in the home of Martha and Mary complements the story of the Good Samaritan, which precedes it in Luke's Gospel. Both stories are unique to Luke. The story of the Samaritan opens with the words "a certain man." Today's reading opens with the words "a certain woman." The Samaritan is an example of how a disciple should see and act. Mary is an example of how a disciple should listen. Mary, a woman, is a marginalized person in society, like the Samaritan. Both do what is not expected of them. As a woman, Mary would be expected, like Martha, to prepare hospitality for a guest. Here again Jesus breaks with the social conventions of his time. Just as a Samaritan would not be a model for neighborliness, so a woman would not sit with the men around the feet of a teacher. Both stories exemplify how a disciple is to fulfill the dual command which begins the love of God (Mary) and the love of neighbor (the Samaritan). These are the two essentials of life in the kingdom. By using the examples of a Samaritan and a woman, however, Jesus is saying something more. Social codes and boundaries were strict in Jesus' time. Yet to love God with all one's heart and one's neighbor requires breaking those rules. The Kingdom of God is a society without distinctions and boundaries between its members. It is a society that requires times for seeing and doing and also times for listening and learning at the feet of a teacher. We have boundaries that determine how we interact with one another and what kinds of behavior is acceptable. Here we find Mary crossing a boundary and sitting at the feet of Jesus to listen to his teaching. Jesus defends Mary, showing us that no one is excluded from becoming his follower.
