HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary: Feast Day Friday August 15th, This Holy Day reminds us that Mary's Assumption into heaven is best understood with regard for the full spectrum of Catholic beliefs about the person of Christ and the person of Mary. Only Mary, who was born without stain of original sin; the Immaculate Conception, could give birth to Christ, who is fully God and fully human. This is called the Immaculate Conception.

REFLECTION: NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN

ORDINARY TIME: The 19th Sunday focuses on Jesus saving us, but we should not just sit back and do nothing. He teaches us that we should pay attention to others and notice how we can help them. That way, when Jesus returns, he will find us acting as his loving disciples. Lets all plan to pay special attention to how we can help our family and friends today. Why do we look for Christ to return? There are many reasons. One would be our devotion to him. Another would be our return to earth after death in the "resurrection of the dead." As Christians, we believe not only in life after death, we also believe that God will reunite our souls and bodies together at the end of time. At the resurrection of the body, we will have a body like Christ's, a "spiritual body. We need to be vigilant and ready to face the Lord. One of the traditional means for remaining alert is prayer. The most important element in prayer is listening to God, an attitude of attention to the "tiny" whispering sound of the Lord.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Years ago, most families had only one or two clocks in their home. Today, we have clocks everywhere, on the walls, on our microwave ovens, on your cell phones, and so on. As a family, go through the house and count how many clocks (time telling devices) your family has. Talk about important events for which family members need to be on time. Recall experiences of being late for something. Either as individuals or as a family. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus talks about how important it is for us to be aware and alert, otherwise, we will miss something. Encourage each family member to place a sacred symbol near the clock that they use most. Use the symbol and clock as a reminder that it is always time for us to act like disciples of Christ.

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. Parishioners are asked to include full name, envelope number, and address. Thank you for your support.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Wisdom 18:6-9 The Hebrew people awaited the salvation of the just.

Responsorial Psalm: 33:1,12,18-22 Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Second Reading: Hebrews 11:1-2,8-19 We look for the city designed and built by God.

Gospel Reading: Luke 12:32-48 You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come. Jesus' instructions on how to be ready for the coming judgement continue in the stories and sayings found in today's Gospel. We are not to be like the greedy rich man in last Sunday's Gospel who planned to store his great harvest in barns rather than share it. We are, rather, to share our wealth with those in need. The antidote for the anxiety brought on by the coming judgement is to relinquish our possessions and provide for the need of others. Our treasure will be in heaven where it will not wear out or be destroyed. The other major way to be ready for the coming judgement is to be watchful. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about watchfulness to begin making this point. We must be watchful so that even if the master comes after midnight, we will be ready for him. This is what the coming of the Son of Man will be like. Peter asks if this parable is meant for the apostles or for the large crowd that has gathered to listen to Jesus. Without answering Peter's question, Jesus responds with another parable about servants awaiting the return of their master. It begins with a question. "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time? This parable adds to the theme of watchfulness; it explains how to wait and reminds us that we should be found doing our jobs when the master arrives. If we are doing our jobs, our reward will be great. If we relax, neglect our duties, and begin to act like the greedy rich man; eating, drinking, and making merry, we will not have a place in the kingdom. Watchfulness means living in such a consistently moral and obedient way that we are always ready to give an account to God of how we have lived.
