REFLECTION: FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER: The Fifth Sunday of Easter, focuses on Jesus as the Way, Truth, and Life, calling believers to remain in Him, bear fruit, and love one another as He loved us. Readings emphasize preparing for his departure, the promise of a place in heaven, and the new commandment to love. Jesus assures the disciples that he is preparing a place for them, emphasizing that he is the only way to the Father. This is a message of comfort, encouraging Christians not to let their hearts be troubled. Jesus gives the command to “love one another.” which the Oblates highlights as challenging us to love with the same self sacrificial love He showed. The allegory of the vine and branches, stresses that without union with Christ through grace, our actions are fruitless. God promises to make all things new, dwelling with humanity and wiping away tears, providing hope and a future perspective. Paul and Barabas return to cities where they were persecuted, highlighting the need to preserve through tribulations to build up the church.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Members of the same family often bear resemblances to one another. Sometimes physical resemblances are shared within a family but often the similarities are behavioral characteristics and mannerisms. We hear this observation affirmed through a number of common phrases: "He's a chip off the old block" or "She's her mother's daughter." Today's Gospel points to a mystery of faith that might be examined in light of these familial relationships. In Jesus we see and know the Father. Likewise, the Father is known through the life and work of the Son, Jesus. Talk together as a family about whether the relationship between the Father and Jesus is so close that Jesus says that those who have seen and known Jesus have also seen and known the Father. End your discussion by praying together as a family.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: ACTS of the Apostles 6:1-7 The early Christian community chooses seven people to serve at table so that the Twelve can devote themselves to prayer and the ministry of the word.

Responsorial Psalm: 33:1-2,4-5,18-19 The Lord is merciful toward those who trust in him.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:4-9 Those who have faith are chosen in Christ to be a holy priesthood.

Gospel Reading: John 14:1-12 Jesus tells his disciples, "I am the way and the truth and the life."

The readings for the last few Sundays have been about the Resurrection, but today's Gospel takes us back in time to an event in Jesus' life before his Passion. Jesus tell his disciples that he is going to prepare a place for them in his Father's house. He promises that where he is going, his disciples will be able to follow. Thomas, who will later doubt the disciples' reports that they have seen the Risen Lord, contradicts Jesus by saying that the disciples don't know where Jesus is going or how to get there. Jesus explains that he himself is the way, the truth, and the life. In knowing and loving Jesus, the disciples now love God the Father. Phillip then makes a request that challenges Jesus' words. Phillip wants Jesus to show the Father to the disciples. Recall that Jesus has just told his disciples. "If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him." As a good teacher, Jesus responds to Phillip by repeating and elaborating on what he has just told the disciples: they have seen and known Jesus, so they have seen and known the Father. Then Jesus offers another reassurance about his departure: because of faith in God and in Jesus, the disciples will do the work that Jesus has done and more. The connection between Jesus and his Father, between Jesus' work and the work of the Father, is made clear in today's Gospel. Jesus is in the Father, and God the Father is in Jesus. As God spoke his name to Moses, "I am." so too Jesus speaks his name to his disciples: "I am the way and the truth and the life." The Holy Spirit will continue the work of the Father and of Jesus.
