REFLECTION: SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER: The Sixth Sunday of Easter, focuses on the promise of the Holy Spirit, abiding in Christ’s love through obedience, and receiving Christ’s peace. Readings highlight that love for God is shown by keeping His commandments, allowing the Spirit to guide us toward a life of sacrificial charity and purposeful action. Jesus promises not to leave his disciples orphans, pledging the Holy Spirit, who will remain within believers and guide them in truth. This brings interior peace that the world cannot provide. In John’s Gospel, Jesus links love directly to action: “If you love me, you will keep my commandments”. Obedience is not mere rule following, but a loving trust in God’s will, which leads to freedom. The reading emphasizes that God is love and that our mission is to reflect this love in our daily, mundane tasks, making “life better for others”. We can reflect on; how can I better show my love for Jesus by loving those around me and, do I truly live in the peace that Christ promised me or do I let storms of the world get inside.

FAMILY CONNECTION

The mystery of the Trinity can be difficult for us to grasp. Today's Gospel invites us to consider how the three person Father, Son, and Holy Spirit work together so that God's salvation is made known to us. Jesus' mission is continued through the activity of the Holy Spirit in the lives of his disciples. We have received this same Spirit through our Baptisms. The Spirit, living and working within us, reveals the mystery of God's love for us. Just as the first disciples were not left orphaned, we are not orphaned; we remain in God's embrace through the gift of the Holy Spirit. Gather your family and invite each family member to say what he or she knows about the Holy Spirit. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, we come to share in the love of God made known to us in Jesus. Thank God for the Gift of the Holy Spirit.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: ACTS of the Apostles 8:5-8,14-17 The people of Samaria accept the Gospel of Jesus proclaimed to them by Phillip.

Responsorial Psalm: 66:1-7,16,20 Sing praise to God, all the earth.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 3:15-18 Be ready to give explanation for your hope in Christ.

Gospel Reading: John 14:1-12 Jesus promises his disciples that he will send them another advocate, the Spirit of truth. Today's Gospel is a continuation of last week's Gospel: Jesus is speaking to his disciples at the Last Supper. In today's reading Jesus offers encouragement to his disciples, who will soon see him crucified. He reassures them that even though he will leave them, he will not abandon them. Instead he will send them the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, through whom the disciples will continue to live in union with Jesus. Jesus uses the term Advocate to describe the Holy Spirit, whom the disciples will receive. Another word used to describe the Holy Spirit is Paraclete, a legal term meaning "one who offers defense for another." Note that Jesus says that he will send "another Advocate." Jesus himself is the first advocate, interceding for his disciples with the Father. In today's reading Jesus contrasts his impending departure with the permanence of the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus will leave to return to the Father, but the Holy Spirit will remain with the disciples. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, the disciples will come to know and appreciate the unity of the Son and the Father. They will also understand that they too participate in the communion between the Father and the Son: "On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you". Today's reading is one example of the contrast that John's Gospel presents between the community of disciples, to whom God will reveal himself, and the unbelieving world, which will remain in darkness. The unbelieving world cannot accept the "Spirit of truth," whom the disciple will receive. Only through the Spirit will God's revelation and love be known.
